When incorporating information furnished by [REDACTED] into communications suitable for dissemination outside the Bureau, Bureau authority is not necessary when the information can be paraphrased so that the identity of the informant is not jeopardized. When certain specific information is of such a nature as to prohibit dissemination, the Bureau should be advised of the basis for non-dissemination. (u)

Certain information furnished by [REDACTED] will be of such a nature as to necessitate a classification above "Confidential", since the disclosure of this information to unauthorized persons could have a detrimental effect upon international relations and the national defense. In all other instances, a classification of "Confidential" will be adequate if the information relates to Soviet nationals and can be adequately paraphrased. (u)

b2
b2D

When disseminating information received from [REDACTED] no reference should be made to the time (date, month or year) the information was received. This should be set forth administratively. (u)

Suitable paraphrasing of the information to be disseminated, plus concealment of the time of its receipt will materially assist in concealing the identity of the source. (u)

IN VIEW OF THE HIGHLY SENSITIVE POSITION OF [REDACTED], EXTREME CAUTION MUST BE EXERCISED IN HANDLING ANY INFORMATION ATTRIBUTED TO THIS SOURCE, AND NO ACTION TAKEN WHICH COULD CONCEIVABLY JEOPARDIZE THE SECURITY OF THE INFORMANT OR REVEAL HIS IDENTITY. (u)

per
CIA

Records of the Passport Office (S) United States Department of State disclosed that [REDACTED] during the past few years visited the Soviet Union on the following dates:

- August 9, 1959 - September 7, 1959
- August 4, 1960 - August 23, 1960
- July 29, 1961 - August 18, 1961
- August 18, 1962 - September 9, 1962

(U)

During the interview of [REDACTED] he advised that he spent the majority of the stay during each of these visits in the Sochi area on the Black Sea. (U)

[REDACTED]

b1
per
CIA

During the interview of [REDACTED] he admitted being a homosexual. Regarding his compromise by the KGB in Sochi, he reported that he was drugged and was physically stripped and placed in a compromising position. (U)

It is plausible, that since [REDACTED] admitted a long series of homosexual activities with numerous individuals he may have concealed this fact for self-effacement. (U)
