When incorporating information furnished by [REDACTED] into communications suitable for dissemination outside the Bureau, Bureau authority is not necessary when the information can be paraphrased so that the identity of the informant is not jeopardized. When certain specific information is of such a nature as to prohibit dissemination, the Bureau should be advised of the basis for non-dissemination. (S)

Certain information furnished by [REDACTED] will be of such a nature as to necessitate a classification above "Confidential", since the disclosure of this information to unauthorized persons could have a detrimental effect upon international relations and the national defense. In all other instances, a classification of "Confidential" will be adequate if the information relates to Soviet nationals and can be adequately paraphrased. (S)

When disseminating information received from [REDACTED], no reference should be made to the time (date, month or year) the information was received. This should be set forth administratively. (S)

Suitable paraphrasing of the information to be disseminated, plus concealment of the time of its receipt will materially assist in concealing the identity of the source. (S)

If the attached memorandum sets forth a Soviet's KGB code name, no further dissemination of that code name should be made. Such information is of no investigative value and its indiscriminate and unwarranted misuse could endanger the informant's sensitive position. (S)

IN VIEW OF THE HIGHLY SENSITIVE POSITION OF [REDACTED] EXTREME CAUTION MUST BE EXERCISED IN HANDLING ANY INFORMATION ATTRIBUTED TO THIS SOURCE, AND NO ACTION TAKEN WHICH COULD CONCEIVABLY JEOPARDIZE THE SECURITY OF THE INFORMANT OR REVEAL HIS IDENTITY. (S)

IN THE EVENT THE CODE NAMES APPEAR IN THIS COMMUNICATION, THEY ARE NOT TO BE FURTHER DISSEMINATED. THEY HAVE BEEN SET FORTH FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY. SUCH INFORMATION IS OF NO INVESTIGATIVE VALUE AND ITS INDISCRIMINATE AND UNWARRANTED USE COULD ENDANGER THE INFORMANT'S SENSITIVE POSITION. (S)

When incorporating information furnished by [REDACTED] into communications suitable for dissemination outside the Bureau, Bureau authority is not necessary when the information can be paraphrased so that the identity of the informant is not jeopardized. When certain specific information is of such a nature as to prohibit dissemination, the Bureau should be advised of the basis for non-dissemination. (S)

Certain information furnished by [REDACTED] will be of such a nature as to necessitate a classification above "Confidential", since the disclosure of this information to unauthorized persons could have a detrimental affect upon international relations and the national defense. In all other instances, a classification of "Confidential" will be adequate if the information relates to Soviet nationals and can be adequately paraphrased. (S)

When disseminating information received from [REDACTED] no reference should be made to the time (date, month or year) the information was received. This should be set forth administratively. (S)

Suitable paraphrasing of the information to be disseminated, plus concealment of the time of its receipt will materially assist in concealing the identity of the source. (S)

If the attached memorandum sets forth a Soviet's KGB code name, no further dissemination of that code name should be made. Such information is of no investigative value and its indiscriminate and unwarranted misuse could endanger the informant's sensitive position. (S)

IN VIEW OF THE HIGHLY SENSITIVE POSITION OF [REDACTED] EXTREME CAUTION MUST BE EXERCISED IN HANDLING ANY INFORMATION ATTRIBUTED TO THIS SOURCE, AND NO ACTION TAKEN WHICH COULD CONCEIVABLY JEOPARDIZE THE SECURITY OF THE INFORMANT OR REVEAL HIS IDENTITY. (S)

IN THE EVENT KGB CODE NAMES APPEAR IN THIS COMMUNICATION, THEY ARE NOT TO BE FURTHER DISSEMINATED. THEY HAVE BEEN SET FORTH FOR INFORMATIONAL PURPOSES ONLY. SUCH INFORMATION IS OF NO INVESTIGATIVE VALUE AND ITS INDISCRIMINATE AND UNWARRANTED USE COULD ENDANGER THE INFORMANT'S SENSITIVE POSITION. (S)

under the control of KGB. Informant said this hospital, which has no specific name, is located on Varsanofievsky Street in Moscow. Informant said he could not recall the address of this hospital but it is located approximately seven blocks from the main Headquarters of KGB. Informant added that this hospital is directed by a colonel who is a KGB employee assigned to the Soviet Medical Service. This hospital, according to the informant, is staffed basically with Civil Service employees including all of the nurses and most of the doctors. Informant added that some of the doctors on this hospital's staff have Army status and ranks, but that the majority are merely "civil servants". (S)

Informant, in developing his thought, then stated that it is mandatory that KGB employees have an annual medical examination at this hospital. Informant said that personnel of all Directorates are allocated specific times at which to appear at the hospital for their annual physical examinations. Informant said, in addition, that as a result of this program, the hospital maintains a file on each and every KGB employee. This file reflects the name, rank, date of birth and other biographical data. In addition, each file has a photograph of the individual KGB employee. (S)

In response to a question, informant stated that the hospital which he mentioned above, was solely for KGB, but that the GRU has a similar hospital somewhere in Moscow. (S)
