1. On 2 December 1967 Subject was given a copy of two pages of his notes and requested to translate the notes and give an explanation of how he obtained the information. A copy of the notes, which are in Russian, is being retained with the original of this memorandum. Subject furnished the results to the undersigned on 4 December 1967.

2. Due to the amount of material being prepared by Subject and the work involved in preparation of transcripts, at the present time a detailed review and formal typing of the memoranda prepared by Subject is not possible. It will be completed at a later date and a separate attachment will be prepared for each specific case.

3. For the present, a copy of the memoranda furnished by the Subject on 4 December 1967 is attached and it is believed the writing of the Subject can be read by recipients of this memorandum.

4. These cases are being given an alphabetical designation at this time and as indicated above, a supplemental memorandum will later be prepared with a separate attachment on each specific case. Basically, the attachment covers the following cases:

- (a) CODE NAME [REDACTED] BORN 1930 [ENG.]
- (b) [REDACTED] BORN 1937
- (c) [REDACTED] BORN 1920

1. On 25 November 1967, Subject was given a copy of one page of his notes concerning six specific cases with additional notes and requested to translate the notes. No explanation was necessary as to how he obtained the information since, according to Source, these were a continuation of notes contained in Operational Memorandum # N-40, dated 25 November 1967. The copy of the notes, which is in Russian, is being maintained with the original of this memorandum.

2. On 27 November 1967, Subject furnished a handwritten translation of the notes, together with certain additional remarks.

3. For purposes of convenience, the remarks and translation by the Subject are, as regards seven cases, being made a separate attachment with some explanatory remarks by the undersigned and notes concerning approximately ten other cases are combined into Attachment (h).

4. The eight attachments are as follows, with the code name and name as translated by Subject, together with a possible or probable English explanation of the name. (For more specific details, see the particular attachment.) The original handwritten memorandum prepared by the Subject is being kept with the original of this memorandum.
