DATE: 5/16/66

FROM : SA, JOHN E. MC DANIELS

SUBJECT: LEE HARVEY OSWALD
IS - R, CUBA

On 5/10/66, SA MC DANIELS contacted Mr. MORRIS GOLDSTEIN, Executive Vice President, Goldring, Inc., 810 Canal Street, New Orleans, La., regarding New Orleans investigation 87-13583. At the conclusion of the interview, Mr. GOLDSTEIN stated that a short time after President KENNEDY's assassination a Special Agent of the FBI had obtained from him an employment application of LEE HARVEY OSWALD. At that time the Agent had informed him that the original application would be returned to him. Mr. GOLDSTEIN advised that at a later date he had received a photocopy of the application sent to him by letter from the FBI.

Mr. GOLDSTEIN stated that since it was his understanding at the time that he furnished the application to the FBI that it would be returned to him he is desirous now that it be returned. Mr. GOLDSTEIN was advised by SA MC DANIELS that by Executive order many of the items of evidence pertaining to the assassination and LEE HARVEY OSWALD were being retained permanently by the Federal Government. Mr. GOLDSTEIN was advised that the matter would be looked into and either the original application returned to him or the reason for it not being returned be furnished him.

ACTION

Either return the original application to Mr. GOLDSTEIN or furnish letter to him stating why it cannot be returned.

DATE: 10/23/67

On 10/19/67, at approximately 2:30 p.m., LANDRY KEATING, 4646 Stenway Dr., New Orleans, La., telephone no. 242-5216, telephonically contacted the New Orleans Office.

KEATING advised that in 1963 he turned over to SA J. DAWSON VAN EPS the guest register for the Liberty Hotel, 137 S. Liberty, New Orleans, La. He advised that at that time he was the part-owner of the Liberty Hotel. He further advised that he believed this register was used in the OSWALD investigation.

KEATING requested that the FBI return his register since it has "sentimental value." A review of NO 100-16601-1A6 revealed that this article was sent to the Bureau on 12/7/63, and was not returned.

KEATING was advised that this article was made the permanent record of the Warren Commission and that he should direct his request to the Warren Commission.

FROM : SAC RIGHTMYER

SUBJECT: ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT
JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY,
DALLAS, TEXAS, 11/22/63

*Lee HARVEY OSWALD
IS R-CUBA*

At 2:35 p.m. this date Mr. BILL BRANIGAN called.

He advised that the Department of Justice is in correspondence with some individual, whom he did not name, and who is very critical of the Warren Commission report and the FBI.

He is making a particular issue about the present location of a pamphlet written by CARLISS LAMONT entitled, "The Crime Against Cuba".

The Bureau has checked its indices and has located a report of SA MILTON R. KAACK dated 10/31/63 at New Orleans in case entitled "LEE HARVEY OSWALD, IS - CUBA". Contained in this report is a 302 of SA JOHN LESTER QUIGLEY dated 8/15/63. On page 6 of this 302 there is information indicating that LEE HARVEY OSWALD was interviewed by the NOPD at his request and that at the time of his interview he had in his possession three documents, one of which was "The Crime Against Cuba". On page 9 of this 302 is indicated that QUIGLEY obtained possession of these three documents.

Mr. BRANIGAN wants an immediate search made of our files in an attempt to locate that document. He wants a telephone call whether we find it or not and as soon as it is located he wants it xeroxed back and front and sent to the Bureau to his attention.

There is some inference that this pamphlet "The Crime Against Cuba", which OSWALD gave to QUIGLEY is different than the regular issue of this pamphlet.

Did Oswald read Castro threat here?

A newspaper article published in New Orleans which quoted Fidel Castro as threatening the lives of U.S. leaders—and which may have been read by Lee Harvey Oswald when he was living here—was omitted from the final Warren Commission report because of a sharp internal dispute.

"We got into a serious hassle with it," Wesley J. Liebeler, a former commission staff member, said of the news article. A recent CIA memo cited the article as a promising lead that "must be considered of great significance" in examining the possibility that the assassination of President John F. Kennedy was the work of a foreign conspiracy.

The news story about Castro's threat, an Associated Press dispatch from Havana that appeared in The Times-Picayune Sept. 8, 1963, subsequently was published without comment as one of the thousands of exhibits contained in 25 volumes of supporting evidence released by the committee.

Liebeler, now a law professor at UCLA, said he was personally convinced that Oswald had read the story, since it appeared in The Times-Picayune at a time when Oswald, known as an avid newspaper reader, was living here.

LIEBELEER SAID the news story was not mentioned in the commission's final report because there was no evidence that Oswald had read it.

The story attracted no public attention until last summer, when Sen. Richard S. Schweiker, R-Pa., commented on its significance in light of the revelation that the CIA had been plotting to kill Castro.

Schweiker, who heads a Senate intelligence subcommittee investigating the Kennedy assassination, apparently was not aware the story had been given no consideration by the Warren Commission, an aide said.

In a Sept. 18, 1964, memo to J. Lee Rankin, chief counsel of the Warren Commission, Liebeler argued that it would be improper to delete the news story from the section of the report dealing with Oswald's possible motivation while at the same time including a discussion of the possible influence of anti-Kennedy literature circulated by right-wing political groups in Dallas shortly before the Nov. 22, 1963, assassination.

"~~IT~~ WOULD SEEM to me that fairness indicates either the deletion of the discussion of the (anti-Kennedy literature) ... or the inclusion of the Castro statement," Liebeler said in the memo, now on file at the National Archives.

The final report by the commission includes a section on the possible influence of anti-Kennedy sentiment in Dallas. It concludes that, although Oswald was aware of "general political ferment present in the city," there was no evidence he was influenced by it.

David W. Belin, who served on the Warren Commission staff, said in an interview that he had not learned about the news story until he came across it while heading the Rockefeller Commission's investigation last year into CIA assassination plots.

Liebeler said the story, which quoted Castro as saying that "U.S. leaders would be in danger if they helped in any attempt to do away with leaders of Cuba," did not prompt the Warren Commission to ask the CIA if it had made any attempts to kill Castro.

ACCORDING TO A May 1975 CIA memo, CIA field agents reported the story to agency headquarters "very shortly after the Dallas killing," but "there is no evidence ... that this Castro interview was considered in following up leads or in dealing with the Warren Commission and its staff."

The memo, written by Raymond Rocca, former deputy chief of counter-intelligence for the CIA, said the circumstances under which Castro granted the interview to AP correspondent Daniel Harker "represented a more-than-ordinary attempt to get a message on the record in the United States."

If Oswald read the story, Rocca said, it "must be considered of great significance in the light of the pathological evolution of Oswald's passive-aggressive makeup ... irrespective of whether there was any formal mandate, or even security service contact with Oswald by the Cubans or the Russians."

[REDACTED] NOPD, telephonically contacted this office on 9/14/76 and inquired as to whether or not there was any record in the FBI files in New Orleans concerning the NOPD jacket (file) on OSWALD as they were unable to locate it.

He stated that efforts to locate this record by the NOPD have been unsuccessful and the Superintendent was holding him personally responsible for locating it.

I advised him we would be glad to check and see whether we had any record concerning this.

SA [REDACTED] called [REDACTED] back re OSWALD and advised we don't have any record of ever having obtained the original NOPD record on OSWALD for ourselves or for the Warren Commission (looked all through 89-69 and 100-16601 on OSWALD).

SUPV. [REDACTED] advised [REDACTED] that he may want to contact LSP, since the Warren Commission's source for that NOPD record was the LSP and not the FBI. He was given the Warren Commission citation.

[REDACTED] advised Supv. [REDACTED] that they have the completely reconstructed record but not the original.

[REDACTED] stated it could easily have been misplaced anywhere within NOPD due to the poor record check-out system in effect at that time.

[REDACTED] said he and the Chief only thought of the FBI as one of several other agencies who might have obtained it.

XXX

MAY 12, 1978

TO: Director, FBI (105-82556)
FROM: SAC, New Orleans (100-16601) - C -

LEE HARVEY OSWALD

Re Bureau telephone calls to New Orleans May 11, 1978, and May 12, 1978.

A canvass has been conducted of the New Orleans Office regarding the numbering of serials in the New Orleans file pertaining to subject. The Office Services Manager has advised he cannot recall why Serial 4 was changed to Serial 5. It would appear that there was a mistake in the original serialization of this file, and there is no serial numbered four.
