SUBJECT: MURKIN

This is the case involving the murder of Martin Luther King, Jr. Lofy

The Legal Attache in Ottawa has furnished us with results of investigation by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) regarding activities of subject Ray while in Toronto, Canada.

The investigative results include the interview of a person by the name of  who identified the photograph of James Earl Ray as the individual whom she spent one night with at the Lord Simco Hotel in Toronto, Canada, in April of 1968. She claims that she picked Ray up at the Metropol Hotel in Toronto and stated that Ray used foul language while he was making love to her. Officers of the RCMP described her as a prostitute, alcoholic and confirmed liar and incapable of telling the whole truth. Photographs of  are attached. g

The investigative report of the RCMP also states that Ray on April 23, 1968, entered Loblaw's Grocerteria, Toronto, Canada, from the rear of the establishment and asked the assistant manager for a full time job. Ray was notified that full time help was only hired from the head office, not by various branches and the correct address and phone number of the home office was supplied to Ray. The head office of Loblaw's was checked, however, there is no record of Ray applying for a job under his own name or aliases. REC 46 44-38861-5035

The RCMP report also advises that they have made investigation at 103 branches of various banks in the Toronto area, as well as 225 branches of the Royal Bank of Canada in Toronto with negative results concerning the possibility of Ray having a bank account or safety deposit box in such establishments. S # 611.22
