Assistant Secretary of Defense
for International Security Affairs
Department of Defense
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Secretary:

On August 2, 1977, the House Select Committee on Assassinations made a request for all records relating to Lee Harvey Oswald and all records relating to the JFK assassination which were in the possession of the Office of Naval Intelligence.

On October 31, 1977, ONI forwarded to ISA 384 pages of materials located in response to the request and this material was forwarded to the House Committee.

Under the Freedom of Information Act, I hereby request a copy of these materials.

I am prepared to pay all costs of search and duplication.

Sincerely yours,

Bernard Fensterwald, Jr.
