

GEN. WALKER TO TALK TO 'FRIENDS' ON L. I.

Special to The New York Times

GARDEN CITY, L. I., Nov. 27
—Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker will speak in the Garden City Hotel Dec. 9 at a meeting sponsored by a group calling itself the Long Island Friends of General Walker.

Edward H. Werner of North Massapequa, a member of the John Birch Society and president of the Patriot Press, a conservative weekly, said General Walker had been invited to speak "by a group of persons sympathetic to his views." Mr. Werner is temporary chairman of the affair.

Mr. Werner said that tickets at $2 each had been sent to about 1,400 persons from a mailing list "we have had for many years."

General Walker, a spokesman for right-wing organizations in the country, will not discuss partisan politics at the meeting and will not refer to President Kennedy, Mr. Werner said.

The meeting will be closed to the public but open to the press.

General Walker is expected to speak on the United Nations.
