Circled in the ground floor doorway of the Texas Book Depository Building in Dallas at the moment that PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY was shot is a man some persons believe to be accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald. The fatal shots are believed to have been fired from the sixth floor. Dallas police, however, say this is another Depository employe. In the presidential limousine (foreground) GOV. JOHN CONNALLY of Texas, who also was shot, is in profile. Behind him, Mr. Kennedy clutches at his chest as the white-gloved hand of MRS. KENNEDY reaches out to grab him.
