Lee Harvey Oswald scribbled "about a hundred" names, addresses and phone numbers in a small notebook which officers found in his Oak Cliff room, The Dallas News learned Friday.

An investigator said Oswald jotted down data which involved people and places "on both sides of the Iron Curtain." He said numerous entries pertained to Cuban embassies and persons and places in Germany and Russia.

Officers found the notebook when they went to Oswald's room after the 24-year-old Marxist was arrested as the chief suspect in the assassination of President Kennedy and the murder of Officer J. D. Tippit.

Discussing the notebook, an investigator said:

"Most of the entries apparently referred to friends or people able to help him. But others would seem to refer to people he regarded as enemies. We found the name 'Walker' and a phone number. It is the number of Edwin A. Walker."

The entry bolstered the theory that Oswald was the sniper who fired a shot at the controversial former general as he prepared an income tax return in his home here April 10.

Walker told officers he had received threatening calls before the bullet whizzed past his head.

Federal agents are seeking men mentioned in the notebook.
