

Oswald's Identifier Also Shot

By BOB CONSIDINE
 Dallas Morning News Special Dallas, Jan. 22 — The identity of the man who shot President Kennedy assassin Lee Harvey Oswald is being sought by police which is slightly different from a series of other cases. But here the suspect is a woman.
 The woman, Betty Garner, was shot in the head and it is not necessary to know her name, date, place of the world's first.
 There were 113 murders in the last year. At one time, not long ago, District Attorney Wade had five men in the drain house, awaiting their turn in the chair.

THIS IS DIFFERENT
 The police are looking for Warren close to the spot where Oswald was shot. It is thought that Oswald was shot from the scene of the assassination. Oswald reportedly was in the office at the time.

The sound of shooting brought Reynolds out of his office. He said police that he saw Oswald running away, pulling his shirt into a pocket as he fled. He later joined with others in identifying him as the man who shot Kennedy.

Last month Reynolds was working in his office for the night and had pushed two of his 20 British who housed the office. The establishment was a fire rose from behind the cabinet and shot him in the temple with a .22-caliber rifle.

Mr. Reynolds has made a remarkable recovery after doctors had feared permanent loss of speech.

SUSPECT UNARMED

A local desperado named Garner was picked up by the police after the Reynolds shooting but was cleared. His girl, Betty Garner, Melburn took a lie detector test that helped spring Garner. Two weeks ago she was arrested for chasing in a public brawl with her roommate.
 Last week she happened to be

Betty never won any beauty contests, but she always said she had a claim to fame.
 She had worked as a stripper at a place called the Carousel Jack Ruby's Carousel.
