DALLAS (A)—Jack Ruby, for legal purposes, is sane and is receiving no medication for mental illness, Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said Wednesday.

A published report said earlier the 53-year-old slayer of Lee Harvey Oswald was receiving 'happy pills', or tranquilizers, in his jail cell.

"I'm rather positive that he is not receiving pills of any sort," the prosecutor said. "Psychiatrists have been seeing him, and I guess you might call some of their questioning, treatment."

Sheriff Bill Decker said he knows of no medical treatment being given the condemned killer, "except perhaps for an aspirin now and then."

Judge Joe B. Brown denied telling reporters that Ruby was given "happy pills."
