DALLAS, May 19 (AP) — The authority before whom Oswald was arraigned said today that no charge of conspiracy was filed against him because no evidence of conspiracy could be found.

"He was a loner," said the official, Justice of the Peace, David L. Johnston.

Mr. Johnston said in an interview that he overheard an assistant district attorney and a policeman discussing whether a conspiracy-to-murder charge should be filed. But the justice of the peace said there was no evidence of a conspiracy. Only a murder charge was filed.

The justice of the peace said he understood that a Washington official telephoned District Attorney Henry Wade asking that the murder charge not include a conspiracy charge.

However, Mr. Wade said today, "I received calls from all over the country about a possible conspiracy, but none from officials."

In another development, a report showed Mrs. Marina Oswald, widow of the accused assassin, had received $70,795 in gifts and from sale of a picture.

The accounting was filed in Judge Dee Brown Walker's court by James H. Martin, the widow's personal manager, and John M. Thorne, her attorney-agent.

Donations totaled $65,795, while sale of a photograph brought $5,000. Expenditures amounted to $5,490 by Mrs. Oswald or for her by her manager or attorney.
