The transcript of Jack Ruby's testimony to Chief Justice Earl Warren and other members of the Warren Commission probing the assassination of President Kennedy concludes today.

Previous portions of the testimony were printed in this newspaper Tuesday and yesterday.

In the testimony published today, there are these new facts:

1—Ruby evaded a direct answer when asked if he, police officer J. D. Tippit and two other men met in Ruby's Carousel Club "shortly before the assassination." Officer Tippit was shot and killed by Lee Harvey Oswald less than an hour after his alleged assassination of the President.

—Ruby admitted spending eight days in Castro's Cuba in 1959.

3—Ruby denied widely circulated reports that he visited Parkland Hospital, where the President died, on the day of the assassination.

4—Continuing to intimate that sinister forces are at work in Dallas, Ruby told Mr. Warren: "They (not further identified) feel about you like they do about me."

TRANSCRIPT COPY

Though the Warren Commission will not make public the findings of its investigation into the death of the President until sometime next month, I obtained a copy of the original transcript through sources close to the Commission in Washington.

In that portion of the transcript printed yesterday, Ruby's testimony drew to a close with the Chief Justice asking him if he had ever been "interested in shipping jeeps down to Cuba.

RUBY: No. I never had the facilities or capabilities of knowing where to get jeeps.

The Q and A follows:

CONFIDENTIAL PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY

DALLAS, Texas, Sunday,
June 7, 1964, 11:45 a.m.-2:50 p.m.

The President's Commission met, pursuant to recess, at 11:45 a.m. in the interrogation room of the Dallas County Jail, Main and Houston Streets, Dallas, Tex.

RUBY: How can I prove the authenticity of what I have stated here today?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, you have testified under oath, and I don't even know that there is anything to disprove what you have said.

RUBY: No, because I will say this. You don't know if there is anything to disprove, but at this moment, there is a certain organization in this area that has been indoctrinated, that I am the one that was in the plot to assassinate our President.

MR. RANKIN: Would you tell us what this is?

RUBY: The John Birch

Society.

MR. RANKIN: Can you tell us what basis you have for that, Mr. Ruby?

RUBY: Just a feeling of it, Mr. Warren, you don't recall when Friday night after leaving the Times Herald, I went to my apartment and very impatiently awakened George Senator. As a matter of fact, used the words, as I state, "You will have to get up, George. I want you to go with me." And he had been in bed for a couple of hours, which was about, I imagine, about 4:30 or a quarter to 5:00 in the morning. And I called the club and I asked this kid Larry if he knew how to pack a Polaroid, and he said "yes."

And I said "get up." And we went down and picked up Larry. And in the meantime, I don't recall if I stopped at the post office to find out this box number of this Bernard Weisman. I think the number was 1792, or something to that; and then there was, it came to my mind when I left the Times Herald — I am skipping back — why I had awakened George. I recall seeing a sign on a certain billboard "Impeach Earl Warren." You have heard something about that?

Warren Had Read About It

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I read something in the paper, yes, that is all.

RUBY: And it came from New Bedford, or Massachusetts; I don't recall what the town was. And there was a similar number to that, but I thought at the time it would be the same number of 1792, but it was 1757. That is the reason I went down there to take the Polaroid picture of it, because of that remaining in the city at the time. What happened to the picture, I don't know. I asked Jim Bowie or Alexander to tell you.

MR. RANKIN: Did you know Weisman before that?

RUBY: Never knew him. When I said Jim Bowie, no one says a word.

MR. BOWIE: We never have seen them.

RUBY: They were in my person.

MR. BOWIE: But no evidence came.

RUBY: No, it did not, never, as a matter of fact I went to the post office to check on Box 1792. I even inquired with the man in charge of where you purchase the boxes, and I said to him, "who bought this box?" and he said, "I can't give you the information. All I know is, it is a legitimate business box purchase." And I checked the various contents of mail there.

MR. RANKIN: Did you know Officer Tippit?

RUBY: I knew there was three Tippets on the force.

The only one I knew used to work for the special services, and am certain this wasn't the Tippit, wasn't the man. *

MR. RANKIN: The man that was murdered. There was a story that you were seen sitting in your Carousel Club with Mr. Weisman, Officer Tippit, and another who has been called a rich oil man, at one time shortly before the assassination. Can you tell us anything about that?

RUBY: Who was the rich oil man?

MR. RANKIN: Can you remember? We haven't been told. We are just trying to find out anything that you know about him.

Made Such Big Issue of Ad *

RUBY: I am the one that made such a big issue of Bernard Weisman's ad. Maybe you do things to cover up, if you are capable of doing it. As a matter of fact, Saturday afternoon we went over to the tour of his lounge, and it was a whole hullabaloo, and I showed the pictures "Impeach Earl Warren" to Belocchio, and he saw the pictures and got very emotional. And Belocchio said, "I have got to leave Dallas."

And suddenly after making that statement, I realized it is his incapability, and suddenly you do things impulsively, and suddenly you realize if you love the city, you stay here and you make the best of it. And there were witnesses. I said, "The city was good enough for you all before this. Now you feel that way about it." And that was Belocchio. As far as Tippit, it is not Tippitts, it is not Tippitts, it is Tippit. *

MR. RANKIN: This Weisman and the rich oil man, did you ever have a conversation with them? *

RUBY: There was only a few. Bill Rudman from the Y.M.C.A. and I haven't seen him in years. And there is a Bill Howard, but he is not a rich oil man. He owns the Stork Club now. He used to cabole in on.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: This story was given by a lawyer by the name of Mark Lane, who is representing Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the mother of Lee Harvey Oswald, and it was in the paper, so we subpoenaed him, and he testified that someone had given him information to the effect that a week or two before President Kennedy was assassinated, that in your Carousel Club you and Weisman and Tippit, officer Tippit, the one who was killed, and a rich oil man had had an interview or conversation for an hour or two.

And we asked him who it was that told him, and he said that it was confidential and couldn't tell at the moment, but that he would find out for us if whether he could be released or not from his confidential relationship. He has never done it, and we have written him several letters asking him to disclose the name of that person, and he has never complied.

RUBY: Isn't that foolish? If a man is patriotic enough in the first place, who am I to be concerned if he wasn't an informer, I am incarcerated, nothing to be worried about anyone hurting me.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Mr. Ruby, I am not questioning your story at all. I wanted you to know the background of this thing, and to know that it was with us only hearsay. But I did feel that our record should show that we would ask you the question and that you would answer it, and you have answered it.

RUBY: How many days prior to the assassination was that?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: My recollection is that it was a week or two. Is that correct?

RUBY: Did anyone have any knowledge that their beloved President was going to visit here prior to that time, or what is the definite time that they knew he was coming to Dallas?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I don't know just what those dates are.

RUBY: I see.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I just don't know. Well, we wanted to ask you that question, because this man testified and we have been trying ever since to get him to give the sources of his information, but he will not do it, so we will leave that matter as it is.

RUBY: No, I am as innocent regarding any conspiracy as any of you gentlemen in the room, and I don't want anything to be run over lightly. I want you to dig into it with any biting, any question that might embarrass me, or anything that might bring up my background, which isn't so terribly spotted — I have never been a criminal — I have never been in jail — I know when you live in the city of Chicago and you are in the livelihood of selling tickets to sporting events, your lucrative patrons are some of these people, but you don't mean anything to these people. You may know them as you get acquainted with them at the sporting events or the ball park.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: The prize fights?

'I Am Not A Gangster'

RUBY: The prize fight good, yet you don't have no other affiliation with them, so when I say I know them, or what I have read from stories of personalities that are notorious, that is the extent of my involvement in any criminal activity. I have never been a bookmaker. I have never stolen for a living. I am not a gangster. I have never used a goon squad for union activities.

All I was was a representative to sound out applications for the American Federation of Labor, and if the employees would sign it, we would accept them as members. I never knew what a goon looked like in Chicago, with the exception when I went to the service. I never belonged to any subversive organization. I don't know any subversive people that are against my beloved country.

MR. RANKIN: You have never been connected with Communist Party?

RUBY: Never have. All I have ever done in my life—I had a very rough start in life, but anything I have done, I at least try to do it in good taste, whatever I have been active in.

MR. RANKIN: There was a story that you had a gun with you during the showup that you described in the large room there.

RUBY: I will be honest with you. I lied about it. It isn't so. I didn't have a gun. But in order to make my defense more accurate, to save your life, that is the reason that statement was made.

MR. RANKIN: It would be quite helpful to the Commission if you could—in the first place, I want to get the trip to Cuba. Was that in 1959?

RUBY: Yes. Because I had to buy a $2 ticket, a pass to get through Florida.

MR. RANKIN: Did you have any other trip to Cuba?

RUBY: Never. That is the only one that I made. I stayed at the Volk's apartments with Mr. McWillie, lived in his apartment. Ate directly in a place called Wolf's, downstairs. Wouldn't know how to speak their language. I wouldn't know how to communicate with them. I probably had two dates from meeting some young ladies I got to dancing with, because my dinners were served in the Tropicana. One thing I forgot to tell you—you are bringing my mind back to a few things—the owners, the greatest that have been expelled from Cuba, are the Fox brothers. They own the Tropicana.

MR. RANKIN: Who are the Fox brothers?

RUBY: Martin Fox, and I can't think of the other name.

MR. RANKIN: Do you know where they are located now?

RUBY: They are in Miami, Florida. They know everything about McWillie, I heard; and know the officials. I met McWillie because he came to the club, and he came to the club to look over the show. And you get to talk to people and meet a lot of different types of people. The Fox brothers came to Dallas—I don't know which one it was—to collect a debt that some man owed the cotton gin company here.

He gave me some bad checks on a gambling debt, and they came to visit me. The lawyer, I think, is Mark Lane. That is the attorney that was killed in New York?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: That is the fellow who represents, or did represent, Mrs. Marguerite Oswald. I think I read in the paper where he no longer represents her.

MR. RANKIN: He is still alive, though.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Oh, yes.

RUBY: There was one Lane that was killed in a taxicab. I thought he was an attorney in Dallas.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: That was a Dave Lane.

Meeting With Fox Brothers

RUBY: There is a very prominent attorney in Dallas, McCord. McCord represents the Fox brothers here. They called me because the Fox brothers wanted to see me, and I came down to the hotel. And Mrs. McWillie—Mr. McWillie was married to her at that time—and if I recall, I didn't show them off to the airport at that time. That is when they were still living in Miami the Fox brothers. We had dinner at—how do you pronounce that restaurant at Love Field? Luau? That serves this Chinese food, Dave McCord, I was in his presence, and I was invited out to dinner, and there was an attorney by the name of Leon. Is he associated with McCord? And there was a McClain.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Alfred was killed in a taxi in New York.

RUBY: He was at this dinner meeting I had with McCord. I don't know if Mrs. McWillie was along. And one of the Fox brothers, because they had just been awarded the case that this person owns, this gin company, that was compelled to pay off.

MR. RANKIN: I think, Mr. Ruby, it would be quite helpful to the Commission if you could tell, as you recall it, just what you said to Mr. Sorrells and the others after the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. Can you recall that?

RUBY: The only one I recall Mr. Sorrells in, there were some incorrect statements made at this time.

MR. RANKIN: Can you tell us what you said?

CONGRESSMAN FORD: First, tell us when this took place.

MR. RANKIN: How soon after the shooting occurred?

RUBY: Well, Ray Hall was the first one that interrogated me. Wanted to know my whole background.

MR. RANKIN: Can you tell us how soon was it? Within a few minutes after the shooting?

RUBY: No, I waited in a little room there some where upstairs in—I don't know what floor it was. I don't recall.

MR. RANKIN: Where did this occur, on the third floor?

'One of Those Floors . . .'

RUBY: One of those floors. I don't know whether it was the third or the second. If you are up on an elevator—

MR. RANKIN: Can you give us any idea of the time after the shooting?

RUBY: I spent an hour with Mr. Hall, Ray Hall. And I was very much, I was very much broken up emotionally, and I constantly repeated that I didn't want Mrs. Kennedy to come back to trial, and those were my words constantly repeated to Mr. Hall.

And I heard there was a statement made—now I am skipping—and then I gave Mr. Hall my complete background about things he wanted to know, my earlier background going back from the years, and I guess there was nothing else to say to Hall because as long as I stated why I did it—it is not like planning a crime and you are confessing call going up the elevator after the shooting of Oswald?

RUBY: That is so small to remember, I guess it is automatic, you know.

MR. RANKIN: Did you that you did the shooting with?

RUBY: Yes.

MR. RANKIN: You didn't carry it all the time?

RUBY: I did. I had it in a little bag with money constantly. I carry my money.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Congressman, do you have anything further?

RUBY: You can get more out of me. Let's not break up too soon.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: When you got to Havana, who met you in Havana?

RUBY: McWillie. Now here is what happened. One of the Fox brothers came to visit me in Dallas with his wife. They came to the Vegas club with Mrs. McWillie, and we had taken some pictures, $x10s. Evidently the Fox's were in exile at that time, because when I went to visit McWillie, when he sent me the plane tickets, they looked through my luggage and they saw a photograph of Mr. Fox and his wife. They didn't interrogate, but they went through everything and held me up for hours.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: Castro employees?

RUBY: Yes. Because evidently in my ignorance, I didn't realize I was bringing a picture they knew was a bitter enemy. At that time they knew that he Fox brothers weren't going to jell, or something was going to happen. Whether it was they were in exile at that time, I don't know. But they came to my club, the Vegas club, and we had taken pictures.

Mr. McWillie was waiting for me, and he saw me go through the customs line for a couple of hours, and he said, "Jack, they never did this to anyone before." Evidently they had me pretty well lined up as to where I come in the picture of Mr. Rivera Fox. I can't think of his name.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: You spent eight days there in Havana?

RUBY: Yes, approximately.
CONGRESSMAN FORD: And you stayed at the apartment of Mr. . . .

RUBY: Volk's apartments. I never used the phone. I wouldn't know how to use the phone. Probably to call back to Dallas. And the only time Mr. McWillie had to be at the club early, so I remained a little later in town — not often — because I saved money when I rode with him, because they charge you quite a bit.

But I didn't want to get there too early, because to get there at 7 o'clock wasn't very lively. Because I would always be with him for the complete evening. We'd leave the place and stop somewhere to get coffee, a little dugout — I saw Ava Gardner down there at the time when I was there. Sae was visiting there.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: What prompted you to leave at the end of eight days:

RUBY: I was bored because gambling isn't my profession, and when you have a business to run, and there weren't many tourists I could get acquainted with there. I went to the Capri rooftop to go swimming, and went to the Nacional to go swimming once.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: Did you ever go to Mexico? Have you ever been to Mexico?

RUBY: The only time, 30 or 40 years ago, 1934 . . .

CONGRESSMAN FORD: This trip to Cuba was the only time you left the country other than military service.

RUBY: Actually I didn't leave in the military. I was stationed three and a half years in the states. Let's see, never out of the United States except at one time to Havana, Cuba.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Now you said there were some other things. Would you mind telling us anything you have on your mind?

RUBY: No, because as I said earlier, you seem to have gotten the juicy part of the spasmic way of my telling it. How valuable am I to you to give you all this information?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, how valuable is rather an indefinite term, but I think it is very helpful to our commission report. I think the report would have been deficient if it had not been for this interview we have had with you so we are interested in anything that you would like to tell us, in your own language.

RUBY: The only thing is this. If I cannot get these tests you give, it is pretty haphazard to tell you the things I should tell you. Mr. Moore, you seem to have known more about my interrogation than anybody else, right?

MR. MOORE: I think you have told us about everything you told me.

MR. RANKIN: It isn't entirely clear how you feel that your family and you yourself are threatened by your telling what you have to the commission. How did you come to the conclusion that they might be killed? Will you tell us a little bit more about that, if you can?

RUBY: Well, assuming that, as I stated before, some persons are accusing me falsely of being part of the plot — naturally, in all the time from over six months ago, my family has been so interested in helping me.

MR. RANKIN: By that, you mean a party to the plot of Oswald?

RUBY: That I was party to a plot to silence Oswald.

All right now, when your family believes you and knows your mannerisms and your thoughts, and knows your sincerity, they have lived with you all your life and know your emotional feelings and your patriotism — on the surface, they see me only as the guilty assailant of Oswald, and by helping me like they have, going all out.

My brother who has a successful business, I know he is going to be killed. And I haven't seen him in years. And suddenly he feels that he wants to help me, because he believes that I couldn't be any further involved than the actual.

When I told him I did it because of Mrs. Kennedy, that is all he had to hear, because I would never involve my family or involve him in a conspiracy. Everyone hasn't let me down. Because they read the newspapers away from Dallas that stated certain facts about me, but they are untrue, because they wouldn't come out and put those things in the newspapers that they should be putting in. And people outside of Dallas read the Dallas newspapers and are all in sympathy with me as far as the country itself.

That they felt, well, Jack did it. They probably felt they would do the same thing. That sympathy isn't going to help me, because the people that have the power here, they have a different verdict. They already have me as the accused assassin of our beloved President. Now if I sound screwy telling you this, then I must be screwy.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Mr. Ruby I think you are entitled to a statement to this effect, because you have been frank with us and told us your story. I think I can say to you that there has been no witness before this commission out of the hundreds we have questioned who has claimed to have any personal knowledge that you were a party to any conspiracy to kill our President.

RUBY: Yes. But you don't know this area here.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No, I don't vouch for anything except that I think I am correct in that, am I not?

MR. RANKIN: That is correct.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I just wanted to tell you before our own commission, and I might to you also that we have explored the situation.

RUBY: I know, but I want to say this to you. If certain people have the means and want to gain something by propagandizing something to their own use, they will make ways to present certain things that I do look guilty.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I will make this additional statement to you, that if any witness should testify before the commission that you were, to their knowledge a party to any conspiracy to assassinate the President, I assure you that we will give you the opportunity to deny it and to take any tests that you may desire to disprove it. I don't anticipate that there will be any such testimony, but should there be, we will give you that opportunity. Does that seem fair?

RUBY: No. That isn't going to save my family.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, we can't do everything at once.

RUBY: I am in a tough spot, and I don't know what the solution can do to save me. And I know our wonderful President, Lyndon Johnson, as soon as he was the President of his country, he appointed you as head of this group. But through certain falsehoods that have been said about me to other people, the John Birch Society, I am as good as guilty as the accused assassin of President Kennedy.

How can you remedy that, Mr. Warren. Do any of you men have any way of remedying that Mr. Bill Decker said he a man and speak up. I am making a statement now that I may not live the next hour when I walk out of this room.

Now it is the most fantastic story you have ever heard in a lifetime. I did something out of the goodness of my heart. Unfortunately, Chief Earl Warren, had you been around five or six months ago, and I know your hands are tied, you couldn't do it, and immediately the President would have gotten a hold of my true story, or whatever would have been said about me, a certain organization wouldn't have so completely formed now, so powerfully, to use me because I am of the Jewish extraction, Jewish faith, to commit the most dastardly crime that has even been committed.

Can you understand now in visualizing what happened, what powers, what momentum has been carried out to create this feeling of mass feeling against my people, against certain people that were against them prior to their power. That goes over your head, doesn't it?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I don't quite get the full significance of it, Mr. Ruby. I know what you feel about the John Birch Society.

RUBY: Very powerful.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I think it is powerful, yes I do. Of course I don't have all the information that you feel you have on that subject.

RUBY: Unfortunately, you don't have, because it is too late. And I wish that our beloved President, Lyndon Johnson, would have delved deeper into the situation, hear me, not to accept just circumstantial facts about my guilt or innocence, and would have questioned to find out the truth about me before he relinquished certain powers to these certain people.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I am afraid I don't know what powers you believe he relinquished to them. I think that is difficult about what you have to say.

RUBY: I want to say this to you. The Jewish people are being exterminated at this moment. Consequently, a whole new form of government is going to take over our country, and I know I won't live to see you another time. Do I sound sort of screwy in telling you these things?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: No, I think that is what you believe or you wouldn't tell it under your oath.

RUBY: But it is a very serious situation. I guess it is too late to stop it, isn't it? All right, I want to ask you this. All you men have been chosen by the President for this committee, is that right?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Congressman Ford and I are the only members of the commission that are here. Mr. Rankin of the commission is employed as our chief counsel. Mr. Rankin employed Mr. Spector and Mr. Ball as members of the staff. You know who the other gentlemen here are. You know that Mr. Moore is a member of the Secret Service, and he has been a liaison officer with our staff since the commission was formed.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: Are there any other questions that ought to be asked to help clarify the situation that you described?

RUBY: There is only one thing. If you don't take me back to Washington tonight to give me a chance to prove to the President that I am not guilty, then you will see the most tragic thing that will ever happen. And if you don't have the power to take me back, I won't be around to be able to prove my innocence or guilt. Now up to this moment, I have been talking with you for how long?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: I would say for the better part of three hours.

RUBY: All right, wouldn't it be ridiculous for me to speak sensibly all this time and give you this climactic talk that I have. Maybe something can be saved, something can be done. What have you got to answer to that, Chief Justice Warren?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I don't know what can be done, Mr. Ruby, because I don't know what you anticipate we will encounter.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: Is there anything more you can tell us if you want back to Washington?

RUBY: Yes. Are you sincere in wanting to take me back?

CONGRESSMAN FORD: We are most interested in all the information you have.

RUBY: Now is maybe

something can be saved. Because right now, I want to tell you this, I am used as a scapegoat and there is no greater weapon that you can use to create some falsehood about some of the Jewish faith, especially the terrible heinous crime such as the killing of President Kennedy.

Now maybe something can be saved. It may not be too late, what ever happens, if our President, Lyndon Johnson, knew the truth about me. But if I am eliminated, there won't be any way of knowing.

Right now, when I leave your presence now, I am the only one that can bring out the truth to our President, who believes in righteousness and justice. But he has been told, I am certain, that I was part of a plot to assassinate the President. I know your hands are tied; you are helpless.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Mr. Ruby, I think I can say this to you, that if he has been told any such thing, there is no indication of any kind that he believes it.

RUBY: I am sorry, Chief Justice Warren, I thought I would be very effective in telling you what I have said here. But in all fairness to everyone, maybe all I want to do is beg that if they found out I was telling the truth, maybe they can succeed in what their motives are, but maybe my people won't be tortured and mutilated.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, you may be sure that the President and his whole commission will do anything that is necessary to see that your people are not tortured.

RUBY: No.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You may be sure of that.

RUBY: No. The only way you can do it is if he knows the truth, that I am telling the truth, and why I was down in that basement Sunday morning, and maybe some sense of decency will come out and they can still fulfill their plan, as I stated before, without my people going through torture and mutilation.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: The President will know everything that you said, everything that you have said.

RUBY: But I won't be around, Chief Justice, I won't be around to verify these things you are going to tell the President.

MR. TONAHILL: Who do you think is going to eliminate you, Jack?

RUBY: I have been used for a purpose, and there will be certain tragic occurrence happening if you don't take my testimony and somehow vindicate me so my people don't suffer because of what I have done.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: But we have taken your testimony. We have it here. It will be in permanent form for the President of the United States and for the Congress of the United States, and for the courts of the United States, and for the people of the entire world.

It is there. It will be recorded for all to see. That is the purpose of our coming here today. We feel that you are entitled to have your story told.

RUBY: You have lost me though. You have lost me, Chief Justice Warren.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Lost you in what sense?

RUBY: I won't be around for you to come and question me again.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, it is very hard for me to believe that. I am sure that everybody would want to protect you to the very limit.

RUBY: All I want is a lie detector test, and you refuse to give it to me. Because as it stands now — and the truth serum, and any other — pentothal — how you pronounce it, whatever it is. And they will not give it to me, because I want to tell the truth. And then I want to leave this world. But I don't want my people to be blamed for something that is untrue, that they claim has happened.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Mr. Ruby, I promise you that you will be able to take such a test.

RUBY: When?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You will have to let me see when we can figure that out. But I assure you, it won't be delayed, because our desire is to terminate the work of the commission and make our report to the public just as soon as possible, so there won't be any misunderstanding caused by all of these rumors or stories that have been put out that are not consistent with the evidence in the case.

But it will not be unnecessarily delayed, and we will do it on behalf of the commission. I promise you.

RUBY: All I want, and I beg you — when are you going to see the President?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, I have no date with the President. I don't know just when. But as soon as I do see him, I will be glad to tell him what you have said.

RUBY: All I want is to take a polygraph to tell the truth. That is all I want to do.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes. That, I promise you you can do.

RUBY: Because my people are going to suffer about things that will be said about me.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN:

Yes, well, I promise.

RUBY: Hold on another minute.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: All right.

RUBY: How do you know if the facts I stated about everything I said, statements with reference to, are the truth or not?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Well, if you want a test made to test those principal questions, we will work them out so they can be tested. As I understand it, you can't use the polygraph to say now this is the story.

RUBY: I know that.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: To say you have the story of Jack Ruby. You can't do that.

RUBY: I know that. You can clarify questioning me when I conceived the idea and what my answer would naturally be that Sunday morning.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Maybe I can help the situation this way. Suppose you list for us, if you can, the questions that you would like to have asked of you on the polygraph to establish the truth of your testimony. What things do you consider vital in it, and what would you like to have verified?

RUBY: Yes. But you are telling me to do these things — these things are going to be promised, but you see they aren't going to let me do these things. Because when you leave here, I am finished. My family is finished.

CONGRESSMAN FORD: Isn't it true, Mr. Chief Justice, that the same maximum protection and security Mr. Ruby has been given in the past will be continued?

RUBY: But now that I have divulged certain information because I want to be honest, all I want to take is a polygraph test and tell the truth about things and combat the lies that have been told about me. Now maybe certain people don't want to know the truth that may come out of me. Is that plausible?

CONGRESSMAN FORD: In other words, the Chief Justice has agreed, and I on the commission wholeheartedly concur, that you will be given a polygraph test as expeditiously as possible. And I am sure you can rely on what has been stated here by the chairman.

RUBY: How are we going to communicate and so on?

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: We will communicate directly with you.

RUBY: You have a lost cause, Earl Warren. You don't stand a chance. They feel about you like they do about me, Chief Justice Warren. I shouldn't hurt your feelings in telling you that.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: That won't hurt my feelings, because I have had some evidence of the feeling that some people have concerning me.

RUBY: But you are the only one that can save me. I think you can.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes?

RUBY: But by delaying minutes, you lose the chance. And all I want to do is tell the truth, and that is all. There was no conspiracy. But by you telling them what you are going to do and how you are going to do it is too late as of this moment.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: You take my word for it and the word of Commissioner Ford, that we will do this thing at the earliest possible moment, and that it will be done in time. It will be done in time.

RUBY: Well you won't ever see me again, I tell you that. And I have lost my family.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: Yes?

RUBY: No, no, you don't believe me, do you?

Have me, Mr. Ruby.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: To be frank with you, I believe that you are not stating now what is the fact. I don't say you don't believe it, but I believe that I will be able to see you again and that we will be able to take this test that you are speaking of.

Well, I think we have tired Mr. Ruby. We have had him here for close to four hours now, and I am sure our reporter must be equally tired, but we appreciate your patience and your willingness to testify in this manner for us.

RUBY: All I want to do is tell the truth, and the only way you can know it is by the polygraph, as this is the only way you can know.

CHIEF JUSTICE WARREN: That we will do for you.
