

Warren Whitewash of Oswald Case Predicted

Any report of the commission investigating President John F. Kennedy's assassination will be "as complete a whitewash as Earl Warren can get away with," a high John Birch Society official said here Thursday.

But Dr. Revilo P. Oliver, a member of the society's national council and professor of classics at the University of Illinois, said he has no way of knowing whether Chief Justice Warren would be acting under orders of the Communist conspiracy.

He said his opinion is based on Warren's past performance and particularly his "campaign to excite hysterical violence against American patriots."

Conspiracy Seen

Oliver, who wrote a controversial article on the assassination in the society's magazine American Opinion in February, said it seems clear that Lee Harvey Oswald and Jack Ruby were acting as part of the Communist conspiracy.

The motive, he said, was to provoke "a state of hysteria and hatred against American patriotism" and to

"destroy an ever-growing patriotic movement."

Something went wrong when Oswald was captured and exposed as a "Communist agent," Oliver said.

He said the Warren Commission is "illegal and unconstitutional," set up "on the demand of the Communist Party." Only Texas state authorities, the House Committee on Un-American Activities or the Senate Subcommittee on Internal Security had the legal right to investigate, he said.

Russell Key

Oliver expressed some doubt that the commission's report ever will be released, and little hope that it will bring out the truth.

"It depends on how much Sen. (Richard) Russell (D-Ga.), who seems to be the American member of the commission, will submit to its suppression," he said.

Oliver, here for speaking engagements in Glendale and Santa Ana, was asked how he has been getting along at the university since the furor over his article.

"I'm surviving," he smiled.
