Book A Dec 9 1964

NEW YORK—Miss Mid-
night's Notebook: Anthony Quinn will be a free as well as fascinating man, courtesy of a Mexican divorce. So quite naturally Broadwayites are wondering whether his Italian inamorata, Jolanda Addolori, will fly in from Rome and appear at his "Zorba the Greek" preview party in New York to make it a double celebration ... multi-talent ed Ossie Davis, who wrote a play, "Sybil," while performing in "The Hill" in Spain, has hit the jackpot with the property. His wife, Rudy Dee, will star in the vehicle on Broadway, with two big firms combining to produce it, and there is a film deal cooking.

Mark Lane, the attorney who leads the opposition to the Warren Commission's report on the assassination of President Kennedy, is studying thousands of pages of testimony in preparation for his book on the tragedy.

Titled "Rush to Judgment," it will be published by Grove Press in the Spring, and promises to contain many hitherto unrevealed "surprises."
