MARK LANE WRITING BOOK TO EXPOSE WARREN REPORT

Copenhagen, Dec. 11. Mark lane said here today he was writing a book that would expose the Warren Commission Report on President Kennedy's assassination. Mr. Lane arrived from London on a private visit to the home of his Danish fiance'. He plans to marry December 30.

The book to be titled "Rush to Judgment" will appear in March '65, published by Grove Press in the United States, and in about a dozen other countries, Mr. Lane said. He said he had studied the Warren Commission Report and found it "a fraudulent document that does not accurately reflect the testimony before the commission".

Mr. Lane, a former New York assemblyman, was an attorney for a brief time for Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, the mother of the assassin of President Kennedy.
