DALLAS—The overwhelming defeat suffered last month by Senator Barry Goldwater may have been a damaging blow to the conservative cause and the treatment of the recriminations and Republican party leader but here in Texas oil countreatment of the nation's most out oken conservatives is neverticless steering to the right even more resolutely than be-our observatives is neveven more resolutely than hefore. He is Haroldson Lafayette Har, the 75-year-old Texan who has built a family oil-and land fortune estimated at $700 million or more. H. L. Hunt has gamed national attention in receat years as a leading propagaments for right-wing causes. Mr: Hunt, jingling some charge in the pocket of his rumpled blue suit, rocked placidly in a big red leather swivelcharge in big dreary, darkly pan-

The feel, of course, that we are losing our freedom and national sovereignty," he said.

"Dangerous' Trend Noted

The election results showed a further dangerous trend to the left, Mr. Hunt continued, but—he said he would press ahead with efforts to promote his conservative philosophy because "nothing I have amounts to anything for me, or my children, or their children, if we are going the way of Cuba."

Mr. Hunt's most recent ventures have included the presentation to leading conservative Republicans of a "Constructive Republican Plan" for locating good leadership around which to build a right-wing Republican party. He is also sponsoring a "Public Service Education Institute" whose aim would be to locate and secretly promote promising political candidates. In addition, Mr. Hunt has started a daily newspaper column, which has been offered to 457 papers on a free-trial basis, and has published two paperback books to provide "freedom education." The books—"Why Not Speak?" and "Fabians Fight Freedom"—were privately published in October. About half the 100,000 copies of each have been sold for 75 cents a copy, he said.

Mr. Hunt's efforts also mclude support for the Life Line Foundation, a tax-exempt "religious-patriotic organization" that produces radio programs upon which his interests spend at least $1.2 million a year, in advertising. The foundation, whose tax-exempt status has been under scrutiny by the Informal Revenue Service and a House committee, beams protemms with a right-wing orienstatus committee, beams protemms with a right-wing orientics for the white-haired, 200-pound oilman, who spends most of his waking hours shufbased based based compared in is seventh-floor office, wortics, shout the country's and committee to tempared walls, he works diligently or efforts to "save America's freedom." Mr. Hunt said the election outcome was not a repudiation of conservatism because Mr. Goldwater, whom he favored, failed to join the issue of conservatism versus liberalism. "He lost votes every time he spoke," he declared. Mr. Hunt's document proposing the "Constructive Republican Plan" says; "The colossal failure of the Republican campaign may give the party a reputation of helplessness and hopelessness, starting immediate plans for a third party. A splinter party could be fatal to building a successful opposition party to the Democrats and immediate planning for the formation of a workable Republican party is imperative?

Cites Minority Strength Mr. Hunt, who has denied charges that he is an anti-Negro and anti-Semitic, declares in the document that "Lyndon was elected by the minorities." He proposes that "as many intellectuals as possible be converted" to the Republican party and that "a preponderance of the Jews should be sold on the fact that their best interests lie in the elections of Republicans."

If the party would "get a fair per cent of the Jews to cooperate, Republicans would be more popular with the rentertainment field, the airwaves and the press." the document says, continuing: "We are now in an area where whites, however free from racial prejudice, will be forced into the Republican party by the Negro population which will help control the mational democratic party and undoubted ishare or preidmpt many local offices.

"If in their eagerness to bestory, equality Caucasians, motivated by a spirit of fairness, lose perspective and become anxious to enthrone another color as the superior race, the Chinese, with their ancient culture, will be willing to accept the laurels and authority."

3 in G.O.P. Listed Those listed as Republicans to be cultivated for the Presidential nomination in 1968 are, Gov George Romney of Michigan ("He is making a personal success out of however far left he is" and "must be cultivated and converted"); Representative Robert Taft Jr. of Ohio ("could have been the strongest candidate the Republicans might have nominated for the Presidence"), and Gov William W Sonanton of Pennsylvania
