11-71-1965
HYANNIS PORT, Mass.
(UPI) — Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy celebrated her 36th birthday Wednesday with a family party aboard a yacht in Nantucket Sound.

Caroline Kennedy, 7, and her cousin, Maria Shriver, 9, put on a play for the former First Lady aboard the family yacht Marlin.

This was the first birthday that Mrs. Kennedy has observed at this Cape Cod resort since 1963. In the interim, her infant son Patrick died, and her husband was assassinated.

Has Birthday Cake

Mrs. Kennedy had a birthday cake. Several members of the Kennedy family including Mrs. Kennedy's sister-in-law, Mrs. Eunice Shriver, attended the shipboard party. Mrs. Shriver is the wife of R. Sargent Shriver, director of the Peace Corps. With her was her son born just last week at Boston.

Maurice N. McDonald, the Dallas patrolman who captured accused Presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, visited the Kennedy compound Tuesday. It was not determined if McDonald, a native of Maine, met with Mrs. Kennedy. EMR
