Sold for $3,000
at N.Y. Auction

NEW YORK (AP)—A letter written in Russia by Presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald sold for $3,000 at auction Thursday night, almost twice the amount bid for some letters written by Mrs. John F. Kennedy.

David Kirschenbaum, operator of the Carnegie Book Shop, was successful bidder on both the Oswald letter and the letters from Mrs. Kennedy to actor Basil Rathbone.

Kirschenbaum paid $1,600 for the notes Mrs. Kennedy wrote Rathbone not long before her husband was killed.
