

CROSS-COUNTRY WIRE

Newsweek
9/28/64

Washington, D.C.
Atomic scientists gave the Warren Commission one positive piece of evidence linking ~~to~~ Harvey Oswald to the assassination of President Kennedy last November. By using a new process called "neutron activation analysis" (which enables experts to identify submicroscopic particles), they were able to find traces of gunpowder on Oswald's cheek. This established that he had fired a rifle about the time of ~~the assassination.~~ the assassination.