

M-100

THE PERISCOPE

Executive Wing

The State Department and Central Intelligence Agency are at odds. The CIA wants a vastly expanded program to promote pro-American political parties in non-Red countries. State opposes the idea as unwarranted interference in the internal affairs of other nations. The dispute is expected soon to reach Cabinet level and may have to be settled by the National Security Council.

WASHINGTON REPORT

7, 14 65

Prepared by the TIME-LIFE Washington staff, edited by LIFE Bureau Chief Richard Stolley