Andyst KENNEDY ASSASSINATION Sirs:

"A Matter of Reasonable Doubt"ly (Nov. 25) is a masterpiece, a restrained, analytical presentation that bulwarks the grave doubts that are worrying the " entire nation.

VICTOR W. FITCH Easthampton, Mass.

Sirs:

: la эd

193

3., 11 15 .

-1

-1

The second look at the Warren Com716 mission report and the fair pre- nta-tion of the "one-bullet" and "two-bul-" let" theories are examples of an honest;1 style of reporting that ought to prevail. more often in such heated controversies. Your care in presenting the case for both sides justifies your startling 3 conclusion. I hope a similar impartiality to theories marks any subsequent official investigations.

111 JONATHAN VON RANSON Presque Isle, Maine Ŧ

Sirs:

You say that the disagreement between Governor Connally and the Warren Commission arises over how to read u the Zapruder pictures. The "reason tei able doubt" is not over evidence, but interpretation. How can doubt involving interpretation ever be resolved? (19) JOY OLDEMEYER . ITE

Ridgecrest, Calif.

Sirs:

There will be many people opposed a to the painful re-opening of this tragedy, but the demand of history for the truth is a far more important consider11 ation than that of individual grief on pain. ťo

KATHRYN SCHENK Cheektowaga, N.Y. nts that might em-Sirs:

By ignoring the vast body of endence that points to Oswald as the sole assassin, you have encouraged the lunatic fringe in its wild speculations.

RAYMOND LEAVER Long Beach, Calif.

Sirs:

ALC: N

Unless someone produces new, objective evidence a new investigation of would only produce more subjective' uppinion, which in turn would be quesni tioned again. BRUCE L. BARTLESON the Parlin, Colo. node B. Sirs: Because I both admired and respect-" 1 led our late President, I would be sin-Cerely appreciative of learning the true details of that horrible November day in LiDIA A. TERZI<sup>5</sup> Jornala Base out 4 01-14te ]O I Los Angeles, Calif.