

Hospitalized: JACK RUBY, 55, who had been awaiting a new trial for the killing of Presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald—Ruby's 1964 conviction having been reversed last October; with cancer in Dallas's Parkland Hospital. The ailment was first diagnosed as pneumonia, but then a malignancy was discovered and Ruby was told about it. His chances of recovery are uncertain.