Editorial

AN EXPLANATION

The march of events has made us rush this assassination story into print. Other stories will be published on the subject as we get them in shape. We have not finished reading the twenty six volumes of Warren Report testimony, and personal contact with many witnesses is time consuming, often difficult, and sometimes impossible.

To the lily-livered liberals in Dallas, extra copies of this paper are fifty cents each. This is the type of exclusive story we have been suggesting could be printed by an honest weekly in Dallas. Both Dallas papers have known many facts on this story for months. The Times Herald will not fight even when an employee is murdered! It must make those employees just glow with pride to be working for such papers.
