MAC RUBY Second trial on a charge of slaying Lee Harvey Oswald will be held in Wichita Falls, Tex., sometime early next year, State District Judge Louis T. Holland announced in Dallas. Wichita Falls is a city of 115,000 about 140 miles northwest of Dallas. Ruby, 55, was sentenced to death March 14, 1964, after a trial in Dallas for the murder of Oswald, but the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the conviction on the grounds that some testimony was inadmissible and that the trial judge should have granted a request that the trial be held outside of Dallas. LAT 1/20
