

L.A. Times - 5-69
The 13th day of jury selection for the Clay L. Shaw conspiracy trial in New Orleans failed to bring selection of a second alternate, as nearly 150 candidates were excused in rapid succession. Shaw is accused of conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. In another development, the trial judge, Edward A. Haggerty Jr., ordered Time, Inc., to send part of an exclusive film of the assassination for use in the trial.