

2-1-69
Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison of New Orleans charged Dean Andrews Jr., a key defense witness in the Clay L. Shaw trial, with perjury. Andrews was charged with making inconsistent statements to an Orleans Parish jury and to the jury that acquitted Shaw Saturday of charges of conspiring to assassinate President John F. Kennedy. After the trial, Garrison also filed charges of perjury against Shaw.