Kennedy Case, Suicide Linked

A young woman who killed herself early this week was identified Friday as a go-go dancer who figured briefly in the Robert F. Kennedy assassination investigation, police said.

She was Kathy Fulmer, 23, found semiconscious Monday evening in a motel at 2101 Parkside Ave. where she had registered under the name of Sundy Rossi. She died of an overdose of Seconal a half-hour later at County-USC Medical Center.

She remained unidentified until Friday when a girl friend viewed the body. No motive for her suicide has been established.

Miss Fulmer came forward when investigators were seeking a girl who wore a polka dot dress in the Ambassador the night the senator was shot. She told deputy sheriffs she wore a polka dot scarf and had been at the hotel.

But, as the investigation developed, neither Miss Fulmer nor any of several young women wearing polka dot garments at the assassination scene had any bearing on the case.
