

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison of New Orleans said he would seek a third-term unless the federal government can "fabricate" a case against him to have him removed. He said federal agents had secured copies of his files and had questioned witnesses in the trial of Clay L. Shaw, accused by Garrison of having conspired to kill President John F. Kennedy. Shaw was acquitted March 1. 5-16-69