Garrison, Others Sued for $5 Million by Shaw

District Attorney Accused of 'Fraudulent' Investigation Into Kennedy Assassination

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Clay L. Shaw, acquitted a year ago of charges that he conspired to kill President John F. Kennedy, filed a $5 million damage suit Friday against Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison and five others involved in the case.

The suit, filed in U.S. District Court, contended that the conspiracy charge brought by Garrison against Shaw was "in furtherance of his scheme and that of the defendants to conduct an illegal, useless and fraudulent investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy."

Shaw, who was acquitted

March 1, 1969, said in his damage suit that the assassination "occurred beyond the scope of Garrison's jurisdiction and his prosecution was for his own personal aggrandizement in order to obtain a judicial forum for his attacks upon the Warren Commission and other government officials."

"It is alleged that Garri-
