

in a range of 100
 Limited Edition Postcards

Near Harold,
 Creelings from the South Island of NZ
 I have been down here at a teachers' conference for a few days.
 It is very beautiful here, so many trees + parks, even in winter.
 The view on this card is close to Christchurch, only about 30 minutes away. Thanks for your last letter, I'll be writing you back in a week's time or so.
 Love + best wishes
 Paul.

CASTLE HILL, CANTERBURY, New Zealand
 Distinguished by weather-worn outcrops of limestone, Castle Hill was once a staging post for coaches en-route to the West Coast. The font in the Cathedral at Christchurch is made from Castle Hill limestone.
 Photographer: Tony Brunt.

6154

Christchurch 27/6/93

Harold Werberg
 7627 Old Recovers Rd,
 Frederick MD
 U.S.A. 21702

© COPYRIGHT
 PPI PICTORIAL PUBLICATIONS LIMITED
 HASTINGS

CASTLE HILL CANTERBURY