Dear Billy Whitted

Thanks for your note of 19th May and your flyer with the general information to buyers.

I look forward to hearing from you, and I hope you will be able to offer most if not all of the books I need.

Since my last letter I have received as a birthday gift from friends in the States a copy of the Warren Report. (They did not even know I was searching for a copy, just knew I had an interest in the case and found the book at a flea market!)

So you can now take that title off my 'wants' list, and while you are at it you can also delete "Covering the Body" by Barbara Zelizer. This was recommended to me by a friend who had seen it in the States, but I cannot find it mentioned in many bibliographies and I doubt if I need to read it.

So, just to keep you up to date, the titles I am still looking for, and hope to buy from you, are as follows;

1. "Presumed Guilty", by Howard Roffman
2. "Best Evidence" by David Lifton
3. "6 Seconds in Dallas" by Josiah Thompson
4. "Inquest" by Edward Epstein
5. "Secret Team" by L. Fletcher Prouty
6. "Who was Jack Ruby" by Seth Kantor
(also published 1992 under title "The Ruby Cover-up" by Zebra)
7. "Conspiracy" by Anthony Summers (must be the 1989 ed.)

With best wishes, and greetings from New Zealand.

Yours faithfully

Dal McGuirk
