Write on two of the following essay questions:

1. On the battlefield of Gettysburg there is a monument at the point at which Pickett's charge was stopped. this monument marks the "High Water Mark of the Confederacy"--from this point on the fortunes of the Confederacy were ebbing. Do you agree with this or do you think that some other spot or event(s) marked this point?
2. The Civil War has been described as a "rich man's war and a poor man's fight." Support or refute this statement.
3. Write an essay evaluating the wartime record of black troops in the Civil War being ever mindful of the prejudice and discrimination they faced from the Union they sought to defend and the Confederacy they fought to defeat.
