

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 4/9/68

[REDACTED] Reservations, American Airlines, First National Bank Building, Whitehaven, Tennessee, advised that at approximately 12:55 P.M., April 1, 1968, [REDACTED] Reservations Clerk, American Airlines, received a call regarding MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. According to [REDACTED] this call was from a male individual who talked in a clear, precise, emphatic voice. [REDACTED] said [REDACTED] thought it was a middle age white man talking. This individual asked [REDACTED] if this was the American Airlines office. [REDACTED] replied that it was. The male individual then said, "Your airlines brought MARTIN LUTHER KING into Memphis and when he comes in again, a bomb will go off and he will be assassinated." [REDACTED] said the individual hung up immediately and further stated that [REDACTED] was of the opinion that this was a local call. (b)(7)(c)

[REDACTED] could furnish no further information regarding this call or provide any additional information which might be of value to identify the individual responsible for making the call. (b)(7)(c)
