Re: The Three Bay of Pigs

Brothers p. 151

JFK was sailing on the Honey Fitz with Red Fay, an old Navy buddy, when topic turned to movie Seven Days in May, when Fay asked if a military coup could happen in America.

Kennedy said it was possible. With a young president and a Bay of Pigs there would be certain doubts.

If there was a second Bay of Pigs odds would increase.

If there was a third Bay of Pigs a military overthrow could happen. But it will not happen on my watch, etc. . . .

It's an interesting way to look at things during Kennedy's 1000 days.

We have Bay of Pigs in 1961.

We have a second Bay of Pigs (Cuban Missile Crisis), 1962

We have a third Bay of Pigs (American University speech) 1963
