Re: Notes w/ BOT 12

@ Oswald in New Orleans

He represents himself as the New Orleans Secretary of the pro-Castro Fair Play for Cuba Committee. . . .how many members in the NO chapter?

Who are his contacts. . . .arn't they mostly if not all anti-Castro Cubans.

Cubans like Bringuier. The FBI (Quigley) and elements of the extreme right as revealed in some of the literature he passed out (Corliss Lamont's "The Crime Against Cuba). . . with the address FPCC 544 Camp Street, New Orleans, La."

544 Camp Street was the address for the anti-Castro Cuban Revolutionary Council . . . and with the offices of Guy Bannister. Bannister was former FBI and in 1962 he was no longer in the Bureau but was involved in amassing guns to be run into Cuba for the anti-Castro opposition. . . .Bannister was as bad a dude as they come. Probably had a few notches on his gunHad FPCC Oswald had offices in the same building and was really pushing a pro-Castro line Bannister would have dropped him into the Gulf of Mexico
