

THE POLITICALIZATION OF SLAVERY

I. Compromises Over Slavery

- A. Constitutional Compromises of 1787
- B. Missouri Compromise of 1820
- C. The Second Party System Defusing

II. The Problem Reopened

- A. Politics of the early 1840's
- B. The Presidential race of 1844 and the disruption of the Second Party system

FROM WAR WITH MEXICO TO THE SO-CALLED COMPROMISE OF 1850

I. War

II. Five Territorial Formulas

III. Political Deadlock and the the election of 1848

IV. The Compromise of 1850 and its related questions

ABOLITIONISM

I. The problems for the historian

II. Brief Overview

- A. Before 1830
- B. 1830-40
- C. After 1840

III. Protest voters and the presidency 1844, 1848

ORIGINS OF THE KANSAS CRISIS

I. Reverberations of the Kansas Crisis

II. Election of 1852 and tensions within the Democratic Party

III. The Kansas Bomshell

- A. Motives
- B. Events

IV. Two Wars in Kansas

THE POLITICAL REVOLUTION OF 1854-1859

I. Impact of the Kansas Crisis in review

II. Origins of the Republican Party

III. Presidential Campaign of 1856

IV. The LeCompton Constitution and Douglas' Democratic Dilemma

JUDGES AND WRITERS

I. The Dred Scott Decision of 1857

II. Two Literary Explosions

A. Stowe's Uncle Tom's Cabin

B. Helper's Impending Crisis

THE LINCOLN-DOUGLAS CONFRONTATION OF 1858

I. Lincoln's Early Career

II. The Nomination of 1858

III. The Great Debates

A. Myths and Realities

B. Chief Issues of the day in focus

IV. The Freeport Doctrine

TO THE SECESSION OF THE LOWER SOUTH

I. John Brown and his raid 1859

II. The disruption of the Democratic Party

III. The Nominations 1860

IV. The Electoral Results

V. Secession in the lower South

CAUSES OF THE CIVIL WAR

I. Cause as a concept

II. Stages of Interpretation

III. Question of Southern Nationhood

THE CONFEDERACY AS A SUCCESS, 1861-62

I. Formation of the CSA

II. A Solid Economic Beginning

III. Southern Success in the field: First Bull Run to Fredericksburg

CONFEDERATE DISINTEGRATION

I. Antietam to the end of 1864

II. Weaknesses of political leadership

III. Collapse of the Confederate economy

IV. Discontent and Maladministration in the Conf. Army

V. The Ghost of States Rights

UNION WAR EFFORT

I. Lincoln and leadership

II. Union Economy

III. Army Administration in the North

IV. National Focus

THE EVOLUTION OF A TWO-AIM WAR

I. Lincoln's Inaugural Policies

II. Pressures for change

A. military

B. congressional

C. popular and political

D. black

III. Emancipation Proclamation

✓ IV. Black Troops

V. Assessment of Lincoln's Policy

THE END OF THE WAR

I. Military Campaigns of 1864

II. Peace "feelers" and the spring offensive 1865

IV. Advent of "modern" war

Reconstruction, yet to come . . .