Reports of these officers have been submitted with office memorandum of Inspector Thomas J. Kelley on December 6, 1963.

At a few minutes to 2:00 P.H., on November 22, 1963, police officers received a call to proceed to the Towns Theater as the suspect in the murder of Officer Tippit was reported as being in that theater. Officers converged on the theater where they were met by Hr. Warren Burrs and Mr. Brewer. The officers were informed that the suspect was in the balcomy and several officers searched the balcomy with negative results. The lights of the theater were turned on just after the officers arrived at the theater. Patrolaum V. M. McDonald was scarching the theater, Main Floor, and was the first policement to approach the suspect. Cowald stood up and raised his hards about shoulder height and stated, "Well, it's all ever now." As Officer McDonald reached for Conald's waist to search him, Cowald struck Officer McDonald on the nose with his left hand. At the same time, he reached into his waist with his right hand and pulled out a .33 caliber pistel. Officer McDonald and Oswald struggled over the pistel and both fell into the seats. At this time, Officer McDonald was joined by Officer C. T. Valker, Patrolaum Hawkins, and Bob K. Carroll. Oswald was subdued and the pistel was taken away from him. During the struggle, the officers heard the pistel action snap as the harmer fell. However, a shell was not discharged. The officers then secured Lee Harvey Oswald and took him out the front door, and placed him in an unmarked police car and took him to the Contral Police Station.

At the Control Police Station, Patrolaum HeDonald examined the pistol and found in the chamber 6 full rounds with one round dented which indicated it had misfired.

The want time of arrest han not been ascertained at this time, however, all officers again that it was approximately 2:00 P.M.
