

JFK Collar/ Folder #5

Box # 3

1. SS Howlett states SS position based on the film (Z film???) that JFK was hit by the first and third shots fired by assassin. Connally struck by the 2nd.
1A FBI defends its three shots-three hits to AG Ramsey Clark
2. FBI not interested in cooperating in a re-enactment of the shooting
3. Hoover's famous response in 1966 to Life Mag and Connally's certitude that he was hit by a separate bullet. . . .Hoover insists on three shots, three hits.
4. Connally had a fragment in his thigh not a bullet. . . .
5. Hal on exact spot of JFK at time of the first shot . .
6. Hal Verb First Shot not the missed shot. . .
7. Notes from Wecht's "Tales From the Morgue"
8. Hals' notes from discussion with Dr. Perry. Pick up here with a frag in Connally's thigh not a bullet as WC would have us believe. .
.to good advantage.
9. 9.  FBI Reports on the shooting sequence—three shots, three hits. .
Review might be useful**
10.  To review. These pages from Hal's CA 75-226. . . .I have this in another file. . . . but review carefully pps 51-53 for outline of argument I will make in the chapter "JFK's Collar"this is a good source. . . .Also see handwritten page attached to stapled pages.
11. Search Hal's FOIA suit 78-1078 where chromium was detected on JFK's shirt (collar).Nails the scalpel as the instrument used to cut the collar and the tie. . . . This was Clay's tip . . .
12. Hal's interview of Carricowhere he concedes that SOP was to use a scalpel to remove clothes in a hurry. . . .He did not see nurses do this but it was standard practice (Nurses will testify to this). . . .He repeated what he did with Dulles and pointed to a point above the collar where the bullet hole existed. . . . but noted JFK was PRONE at the time. Carrico was the only medical dr. to see JFK when he was brought into Trauma Rm. # 1 and Questioned closely.

13. News stories sent by Bernice Moore collected by Meagher re: JFK's wounds.  Review. . .
14. Cyril Wecht attacks the Rockefeller Commission (along with
15. G. Aguilar/Tink Thompson "The Magic Bullet: More Magical Than We Knew" This piece shreds the official story of chain of possession. It concludes that CE#399 was simply added to the evidence package by the FBI.
16. JFK assassination chapter from Wecht's "Tales From the Morgue"
