Katz Memo

The Katzenbach memo lays out the “official truth” of Dallas. What is that “official truth”?

The Katzenbach memo was written and prepared after his ‘discussion’ with the ‘director’ and as it turned out, curiously, these would be the results of the FBI investigation. Katzenbach stated that the results of the FBI investigation should be put out to the public by the end of the week in order to assure and satisfy the public that this was a one person assassination and not the result of a communist plot. The “official truth” that he refers to is: Oswald did it alone; had no help; there was and needed to be ‘evidence’ that would have convicted Oswald in court if he had not been killed and had gone to trial; the ‘evidence’ had to rebut the notion that this was a communist conspiracy or a right wing conspiracy to make it look like a communist conspiracy (sort of like-provocation?).
