FBI Will Prepare Report On Slaying

BY LESLIE H. WHITTEN
POST-INTELLIGENCER WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT WITH HEARST HEADLINE SERVICE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26. — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover plans to have an exhaustive report in President Johnson's hands by Friday on the assassination of John F. Kennedy by Lee Harvey Oswald. The report will make these major points, it is understood:

- Oswald, 24, is the killer beyond reasonable doubt.
- Oswald was not directed to kill President Kennedy by any communist, Trotskyite or other subversive group.
- But solid evidence of his background, his reading and his recent behavior indicate that the violent aspect of communism attracted him and probably played a definite psychological role in his murderous action.
