

OSWALD AND LINE UPS

2

Line Ups occurred on 11/22

He was dressed in the clothes in which he was arrested: a ratty T-shirt. He was the only one in the line ups with handcuffs. He had a mouse over his left eye and a scrap on his face. The others in the line-ups with him were dressed in street clothes: suit coats, ties, and were not wearing handcuffs.

Oswald complained vigorously about the way the police staged these line ups to frame him.

The Warren Commission was aware of this situation but was "Satisfied that the line ups were conducted fairly." (See WCR, p. 169)

Some Warren Commission staff members w/ law degrees would later complained that Oswald's rights were violated by the Dallas police by allowing reporters full access to Oswald and the breaking story. They wrote stories to meet their deadlines and these accounts carried the slant that Oswald was the lone assassin.

Staffer John Hart Ely, Yale Law School graduated magna cum laude (1963) complained to Assistant Counsel Samuel A. Stern, 4/3/'64 that Oswald was subjected to 12 hours of interrogation on 11/22/'63 and he "regarded this as coercion." See J.H. Ely to Assistant Counsel S.A. Stern, 4/3/'64, Rankin Papers, NARA, box 17, folder 283, p. 18

Oswald on 11/22 was subjected to 12 hrs of interrogation. He told Rankin he "regarded this as coercion."

( See J.H. Ely to Assistant Counsel S.A. Stern, 4/3/'64. . Rankin Papers, NARA, box 17, folder 283, p. 18 and John Hart Ely

OSWALD AND LINE UPS

Line Ups occurred on 11/22

He was dressed in the clothes in which he was arrested: a ratty T-shirt. He was the only one in the line ups with handcuffs. He had a mouse over his left eye and a scrap on his face. The others in the line-ups with him were dressed in street clothes: suit coats, ties, and were not wearing handcuffs.

Oswald complained vigorously about the way the police staged these line ups to frame him.

The Warren Commission was aware of this situation but was "Satisfied that the line ups were conducted fairly." (See WCR, p. 169)

Some Warren Commission staff members w/ law degrees would later complained that Oswald's rights were violated by the Dallas police by allowing reporters full access to Oswald and the breaking story. They wrote stories to meet their deadlines and these accounts carried the slant that Oswald was the lone assassin.

Staffer John Hart Ely, Yale Law School graduated magna cum laude (1963) complained to Assistant Counsel Samuel A. Stern, 4/3/'64 that Oswald was subjected to 12 hours of interrogation on 11/22/'63 and he "regarded this as coercion." See J.H. Ely to Assistant Counsel S.A. Stern, 4/3/'64, Rankin Papers, NARA, box 17, folder 283, p. 18

Oswald on 11/22 was subjected to 12 hrs of interrogation. He told Rankin he "regarded this as coercion."

( See J.H. Ely to Assistant Counsel S.A. Stern, 4/3/'64. . Rankin Papers, NARA, box 17, folder 283, p. 18 and John Hart Ely

Omit

