

Oswald as Sole Suspect

Re: Chapter writing (Subjects/Order)/File 7 /Box 9

@1 Account by detectives Richard M. Sims and Elmer "Sonny" Boyd. . .These are the two detectives that Fritz assigned to Oswald while he was in the Dallas lock-up for 2 days before he was murdered. A strain of respect for Oswald in their account of these 2 days. Most of the time he was "a model prisoner"(p. 2) Only 2 occasions when he snapped. One was his contact with Hosty and the other was when a reporter asked Oswald if he shot the President and Oswald sharp reply "I am just a patsy." P. 2 end of page that at about 3a.m. on Sunday morning everything was quiet. . . .this was time to move Oswald. . . .Impression both had was that Oswald's security was a joke. . .F7/item 1)

@ DiEugenio on Bugs On the First 48 Hours. . . .Spend some time with this . . .there is good stuff. . . File 7/item 2)

@ Mae Brussell Oswald's Last words (File 7/Item 3)

@ P. Dale Scott p. 2 (only) where he slides over 12:45 description of JFK's assassin as Oswald and his vitals. . . .(File 7/Item 8). . . gives documentation/but compromised by copying. .

@ Hal's destruction of evidence in the case. . . strong emphasis on Brennan but includes other useful areas Taken from his Posner MS. (File 7/item 9)

@ News stories immediately after assassination and Oswald's own murder . . the dead Oswald in the frame (despite no forensic evidence worth spit). . .

@ White database notes description of shooter (what about name) as "white, slender, weighing about 165 pounds, about 5 ft 10 inches tall and in his early thirties. . . ." Graph also notes that WC says "probably" description came from Howard L. BrennanPage cites is p. 144.. . is that in WCR. Yep its laid out in the WCR on p. 144**
