Examples of Oswald's innocence, P. 2

Oswald in the frame a little more than one hour after the fusillade on Elm Street!!! The report said: Oswald was shot and killed Dallas police Tibbit at 1:40 P.M. at 1:40 P.M. and "This man shot and killed President John F. Kennedy . . . and shot and wounded Governor John Connally."

.1. Begin w. above: Oswald in the frame w/in minutes after JFK pronounced dead. This was the work of the police and law enforcement authorities in Dallas. (Wade & others). Oswald was the only suspect in the crime according to the Dallas law enforcement system. That was minutes after the assassination. (Note: Hoover phone call to LBJ on 11/23 at 10:01 A.M. (Saturday ) where the Director noted that "the evidence they have at present time is not very, very strong." Hoover was speaking about the several hundred items of evidence in the case that were shipped to Seat of Govt. by military transport and reached the FBI in the early hours of Saturday morning. (Source: Telephone conversation between the President and J. Edgar Hoover, LBJ Library's Compilation, Tape #13, copy from LBJ Library first cited by Rex Bradford.

2. Another area: The official account Oswald's arrest in the Texas Theatre reeks of evidence tampering and bad faith investigation. Much was made of the Dallas police heroics in the capturing of "President Kennedy's killer." According to the official account the Dallas cop who heroically wrested the revolver from Oswald's hand was patrolman D.M. McDonald. Assisting him were Dallas policemen Ray Hawkins, Bob K. Carroll, Sgt. Gerald Hill, and John Calvin Brewer. In this derring-do account all four of these other officers, at one time or another during the scuffle or immediately afterwards, had their hands on the revolver Oswald allegedly used to kill Dallas patrolman J.D. Tippit. This concocted account is overturned by an internal Dallas Police Department document that noted "Gun taken from LHO at time of arrest of Dallas police 11/22/'63. No latent prints of police found on gun."

The alleged failure to record any of the interrogations of Oswald while in police custody. Before Oswald was himself assassinated he was interrogated by Captain John Will Fritz from Friday to Sunday for a combined 12 hours. Initially, the official story trotted out by Fritz was that the only record of what transpired during these sessions resided in a few pages of notes he made. Fritz's explanation was that he had requested funds to purchase a tape recorder in his past two annual reports only to have his request denied! ↴

So at the time the Dallas Police Department was confronted with the most (profound/better word) assassination of 20th Century America the authorities were allegedly reduced to note taking. During these interrogation sessions the Secret Service and the FBI were present. This was all a monumental fabrication to excise from the public record what Oswald volunteered about his actions the day of the assassination and what, if any role, he had as a government asset.

We know this because on Sunday Oswald was himself assassinated in the basement of the Dallas Police Department surrounded by 98 Dallas police officers and some 150 news reporters. Once that news was reported the Secret Service swept up Marina Oswald, her children, her mother-in-law and Lee's brother Robert. They were taken to the Inn of the Six Flags outside of Arlington, Texas. After dinner two SS agents grilled Marina for almost 8 hours. All of this was captured on a tape recorder. That same evening or in the early morning hours of Friday morning the taped record of this interrogation was flown to SS headquarters in Washington, D.C. It would be fatuous to assume that the SS agents in Dallas who participated in the Oswald interrogation sessions did not use
