

H470

Fact Checking List for "Who Was Lee Harvey Oswald"?

Re: The following talking points occur in no particular order.

@ Oswald's proficiency in the Russian language

Attended the Monterey, CA, School of the Army of Languages.

@ Oswald's security clearance in the Marines.

@ His tours of duty in the East: Atsugi, Japan, and Cubi Point, Philippines.

@ Oswald the defector. . . instances of American defectors to USSR from 1945-1960 was only two. By 1960 and after the number jumped into the teens! Most of these alleged "defectors" like Oswald found their way to the Soviet embassy in Helsinki, Finland, where a 48 hour wait for an entry pass was available. This Soviet Helsinki embassy was the only one in the world that provided that service.

@ Former CIA accountant James B. Wilcott reported to the HSCA in March 22, 1978, that Oswald was a CIA "regular employee."

@ Oswald was a CIA courier in New Orleans according to CIA agent Hunter Leake.

@ Oswald's attempted phone call from the Dallas jail on 11/23/1963 to a John Hurt.

H470

Fact Checking List for "Who Was Lee Harvey Oswald"?

Re: The following talking points occur in no particular order.

@ Oswald's proficiency in the Russian language

Attended the Monterey, CA, School of the Army of Languages.

@ Oswald's security clearance in the Marines.

@ His tours of duty in the East: Atsugi, Japan, and Cubi Point, Philippines.

@ Oswald the defector. . . instances of American defectors to USSR from 1945-1960 was only two. By 1960 and after the number jumped into the teens! Most of these alleged "defectors" like Oswald found their way to the Soviet embassy in Helsinki, Finland, where a 48 hour wait for an entry pass was available. This Soviet Helsinki embassy was the only one in the world that provided that service.

@ Former CIA accountant James B. Wilcott reported to the HSCA in March 22, 1978, that Oswald was a CIA "regular employee."

@ Oswald was a CIA courier in New Orleans according to CIA agent Hunter Leake.

@ Oswald's attempted phone call from the Dallas jail on 11/23/1963 to a John Hurt.

H470

Fact Checking List for "Who Was Lee Harvey Oswald"?

Re: The following talking points occur in no particular order.

@ Oswald's proficiency in the Russian language

Attended the Monterey, CA, School of the Army of Languages.

@ Oswald's security clearance in the Marines.

@ His tours of duty in the East: Atsugi, Japan, and Cubi Point, Philippines.

@ Oswald the defector. . . instances of American defectors to USSR from 1945-1960 was only two. By 1960 and after the number jumped into the teens! Most of these alleged "defectors" like Oswald found their way to the Soviet embassy in Helsinki, Finland, where a 48 hour wait for an entry pass was available. This Soviet Helsinki embassy was the only one in the world that provided that service.

@ Former CIA accountant James B. Wilcott reported to the HSCA in March 22, 1978, that Oswald was a CIA "regular employee."

@ Oswald was a CIA courier in New Orleans according to CIA agent Hunter Leake.

@ Oswald's attempted phone call from the Dallas jail on 11/23/1963 to a John Hurt.

H470

Fact Checking List for “Who Was Lee Harvey Oswald”?

Re: The following talking points occur in no particular order.

@ Oswald’s proficiency in the Russian language

Attended the Monterey, CA, School of the Army of Languages.

@ Oswald’s security clearance in the Marines.

@ His tours of duty in the East: Atsugi, Japan, and Cubi Point, Philippines.

@ Oswald the defector. . . instances of American defectors to USSR from 1945-1960 was only two. By 1960 and after the number jumped into the teens! Most of these alleged “defectors” like Oswald found their way to the Soviet embassy in Helsinki, Finland, where a 48 hour wait for an entry pass was available. This Soviet Helsinki embassy was the only one in the world that provided that service.

@ Former CIA accountant James B. Wilcott reported to the HSCA in March 22, 1978, that Oswald was a CIA “regular employee.”

@ Oswald was a CIA courier in New Orleans according to CIA agent Hunter Leake.

@ Oswald’s attempted phone call from the Dallas jail on 11/23/1963 to a John Hurt.