Yarborough Gets JFK Table Spot

By JIM LEHRER
 Staff Writer

The controversy over an alleged "snub" of Sen. Ralph Yarborough was settled Tuesday with the official announcement that he has been invited to sit at the head table at the Friday luncheon in Dallas for President Kennedy. A spokesman for the three sponsoring organizations said that both Sens. Yarborough and John Tower and their wives have been issued invitations to sit at the head table with the Kennedys. Sen. Yarborough, a Democrat, has indicated he will be present at the Trade Mart for the non-political, invitation-only affair. Republican Tower has said he has no plans to attend. Details of security arrangements became firm Tuesday also as the official motorcade route from Love Field to the Trade Mart was announced. Further, Police Chief Jesse Curry said that between 175 and 200 local law enforcement officers will join Secret Service agents in insuring the President's security during his three-hour visit to Dallas. He said Dallas County sheriff's deputies and officers of the Department of Public Safety will help with traffic control and security at Love Field, along the motorcade route and at the Trade Mart. Sheriff Bill Decker and DPS Major Guy Smith have been in on the planning, he said. While the formal announcement of the details of the President's Texas and Dallas trip was to be made in Washington at 4 p.m. at White House representative in Dallas. See TABLE on Page 13.

Dallas released the motorcade route.

From the airport, the President's party will proceed to Mockingbird Lane to Lemmon and then to Turtle Creek, turning south to Cedar Springs.

The motorcade will then pass through downtown on Harwood and then west on Main, turning back to Elm at Houston and then out Stemmons Freeway to the Trade Mart.

The return trip will be much shorter, going directly from the luncheon site to Harry Hines to Mockingbird and then to Love Field.

PUBLIC TO BE KEPT OUT
 Authorities said that all but the main entrance of the Trade Mart will be sealed off to luncheon goers. The many exhibit room passageways that lead into the main courtyard where the luncheon is being held will be roped off and manned by guards.

People with tickets will be allowed to sit in the three high balconies overlooking the courtyard area, but guards will be on hand there also to insure that only those with tickets are admitted. The spokesman said it looked "unlikely" at this point that a platform and a public address system would be set up at Love Field so the President could say a few words to his greeters at plane-side.

The head table seating announcement closed argument that had been running over complaints that Sen. Yarborough, who is upfor re-election in 1964, had been deliberately omitted.

Others sitting at the head table will be President and Mrs. Kennedy, Vice President and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. J. Erik Sterling, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Berkinger, Mayor and Mrs. Earle Cabell and Gov. and Mrs. John Conally. The luncheon is being jointly sponsored by the Dallas Citizens Council, the Dallas Assembly and the Science Research Center.

ALGER NOT COMING
 In Washington, Dallas Congressman Bruce Alger, a Republican, announced that he would be unable to attend the luncheon because of a conflicting House committee hearing.

"I am confident that President Kennedy will be accorded a welcome in the best tradition of Big D hospitality," said Rep. Alger, who, along with all congressmen in the Dallas area, was invited by the sponsoring organizations.

Local law enforcement officers on the President's security detail will have a new crowd control ordinance to enforce — if it becomes necessary.

City Manager Elgin Cruik said Tuesday that the new ordinance, passed in record time Monday by the City Council, will be in full effect Friday.

Work on the new ordinance began shortly after the reception given to U.N. Ambassador Acaia Stevenson during a visit here recently.

The ordinance gives police more power to arrest persons who picket in an unruly fashion or who interfere in the conduct of both private and public meetings.
