

Phyllis A. Finck
~~AAH~~ AARB - Dopsotti - (May 24, 1986)
College Park, MD

Quintin Jeremy

19/20 - Finck says he took notes during autopsy Camm calls her attention to Dr. 1/25/1965 - "Subject."

The copy of "JPA Summary" - Specialy on pp 1-2.

p. 24 Finck remembers that he took notes during the autopsy

Do this his report to Blumberg

12/43 - further to remove the neck organs p 42/43 - Finck refers to wound as in upper back

p. 46 Camm got into measurement of a wound on the thoracic
p. 45 - County - ~~that~~ a fixed body landmark was essential - not the mastoid process. Finck agrees.

~~A. 46~~
A. 47 { the correct a medical/legal point of reference would be ~~thoracic~~ thoracic vertebrae. (eg. Buckley's 3rd thoracic vertebra is death Conspicue

Exp find on this in Chapter p. 55. Gann shows his face sheet (Boswell's) - and asks if it strikes him as strange that this is the only document of measurements in it for JFK autopsy. This is the only detail of JFK autopsy pp. 55/56 WAF

Finch under questioning says he may have taken notes - States not going forth - p. 56.

p. 57 - Finch confirms Carpenter that he asked to see JFK's clothes and was denied

Contradiction here

pp. 67/68 - Finch states still holding back Kennedy's limited to autopsy Gann never being up his clay

p. 77 - Gann cites Huns description of autopsy room as "circus-like atmosphere" - "I ... sneaked into trying to do delicate necropsy in a three-ring circus." - Quote for JAMA article.

Shan Trial Testimony

(Finch had said there were about 26 people in the morgue - p. 69)

p. 78 - Finch agreed that there were too many people in the autopsy room - Not go as far as to describe it as a "three-ring circus" like Huns Furch - ARRB - Dep.

p. 80 - Furch says he heard a upper back - agreed<sup>3</sup> w/ Coan's description in the instance (again)

p. 93 - Furch says "many metallic finger fragments were seen on the way of the bullet"

p. 126. Furch refers to JPK under in back as in "the upper back" for a colored photo Coan showed the

pp. 140-141 Did Furch (Coan asked) meet w/by U.S. Attorney Office before giving testimony at Clay Shaw trial. He could not remember whether they coached him for his appearance.

Whe was he prepared by US Attorney to his trial
testimony
Shaw