Dear Mr. McKnight:

This is in response to your letter of September 29, 1997, requesting information concerning Dr. Joseph Dolce.

There is a "Key Persons" File for people who had prominent roles or testimony in the investigation conducted by the Warren Commission. For your reference, we are providing you with the National Archives Microfilm Publication Pamphlet number M1289. This pamphlet serves as an index to the names in the "Key Persons" file. You will notice the Dr. Dolce's name is not among the names in the listing.

In an effort to find information that is responsive to your request, we conducted a search of the JFK database. This search indicates the existence of 5 documents that refer to Dr. Dolce. For your convenience, we are providing you with copies of the corresponding Record Identification Forms. Please let us know if you would like to receive copies of any of these documents. Keep in mind that you are entitled to 62 additional free copies of assassination related records.

Per your request, we are enclosing a copy of the folder title listing for the personal papers of J. Lee Rankin. The listing is very comprehensive and, in most instances, includes dates. Hopefully, this list will prove helpful for your upcoming visit to the National Archives. If you find, however, that you need additional information, please feel free to contact us.

Sincerely,
