Civil Action No. 75-226

AFFIDAVIT OF JAMES T. TAGUE

1. My name is James T. Tague. I live at 14324 Shoredale Lane, Dallas, Texas. I am the Fleet Sales Manager of Steakley Chevrolet, Inc., at 6411 East Northwest Highway, Dallas, Texas, an automobile dealership which employs over 200 people.

2. I am the bystander mentioned in the Warren Commission Report as having received a minor wound in the shooting that killed President John Kennedy and seriously wounded then Texas Governor John Connally.

3. The place at which the assassination occurred is known as Dealy Plaza. It is bounded on the north by Elm Street, on the south by Commerce Street, with Main Street between them. At that time, Elm Street was a one-way street headed west and Commerce Street was a one-way street headed east. These three streets flow together at the west end of Dealy Plaza at what is known as the "Triple Underpass," formed by bridges and an excavation to permit traffic to flow underneath the wide railroad tracks.

4. At shortly before 12:30 p.m., Dallas time, on November 22, 1963, I was driving east on Commerce Street, in the northern (left) lane. As I was about to emerge from under the triple underpass, I was blocked by stopped traffic. I left my car and was standing on the north side of Commerce Street between Commerce Street and Main Street, when the Presidential motorcade was going west on Elm Street.

5. As the motorcade came down Elm Street, I heard a noise that at first, sounded like an exploding firecracker. As I was looking around Dealy Plaza, trying to determine what it was that I had heard, I heard the sounds of the second and third shots. I saw people throwing themselves to the ground. I reacted by stepping behind a pillar of the Triple Underpass. As I emerged from behind this pillar, a man, whom I later determined to be Deputy Sheriff Eddy R. "Buddy" Walthers, ran up to me and asked me if I had seen what had happened. After I told him that I did not know what had happened, we walked to where a small crowd had gathered around a motorcycle policeman. A man was exclaiming, "His head exploded! His head exploded! The President's head exploded!" At this point, Deputy Sheriff Buddy Walthers said that I had blood on my cheek. It was at this time that I remembered something had stung me on my cheek during the shooting. We walked back toward the place I had been standing. When we were approximately 30 to 40 feet from this point, Mr. Walthers exclaimed, "Look there, on the curb." There was a very fresh mark on the curb, which appeared to have been caused by a bullet. I recall that other officers came up and inspected this impact point. I recall that the motorcycle policeman called in on his police radio the fact that I had received a slight wound. I was then sent to the Homicide Section of the Dallas Police Department to give my statement. A homicide officer, whose name I do not recall, took my statement.

6. While this officer was taking my statement, Lee Harvey Oswald was brought into the adjoining cubicle, where there were many other police officers.

7. Since then, I have never seen the statement prepared by this homicide officer.

8. I later learned that on November 23, 1963, Deputy Sheriff Walthers took two photographers to the spot where I had been standing in Dealy Plaza and they photographed the curbstone, showing the point of impact from which I was wounded.

9. I now am not certain whether it was a fragment of bullet or a fragment of concrete that sprayed from the impact that caused my minor wound.

10. Because this was an event of some importance, I made some notes at that time, thinking that in the future, they might be of some interest to my children. I have also saved a few news stories.

11. I thought it was strange that with an extensive official investigation going on, that no FBI agent ever spoke to me when the fact of my minor wound was on the police radio and in police reports and when a picture of the impact on the curbstone had been printed in Dallas newspapers. A copy of one that I preserved is attached as Exhibit "A". This is one of the photographs taken on November 23, 1963 by Tom Dillard, of the Dallas Morning News.

12. The next month, on December 13, 1963, after a news story headlined "Questions Raised on Murder Bullets" appeared in the Dallas Morning News I phoned the FBI. It then interviewed me the following day.

13. This news account goes into a question that perplexed me, in addition to the lack of official interest in a first-person account of some of the firing during the assassination. It is with President Kennedy's having received a fatal wound and a non-fatal wound and Governor Connally's having been wounded in three different parts of his body and with only three shots fired, what caused my wound when I was twice as far from the place the shots were said to have come from as the Presidential car was?

14. Because of the manner in which I preserved this news account, it did not keep in good condition. I have asked my wife to retype it, and her retyped copy and a photostat of the news story are attached herein as Exhibit "B".

15. While there are these and other news accounts, my own notes of the time and the FBI account of its interview with me all refer to a chipping of the curbstone, I now have no independent recollection of a chipped point. I am absolutely without doubt that there was a very visible mark and that Deputy Sheriff Walthers saw it from a distance.

16. All accounts are as this news story expressed it, "freshly made."

17. Harold Weisberg showed me a copy of the FBI's account of its December 14, 1963, interview with me on June 10, 1977. A copy of this report is attached, marked Exhibit "C". A sentence in it that refers to this and to what I then said about it reads, "He did look around the curb and near where he was standing, there was a chip missing, which he stated looked fresh."

18. Mr. Weisberg has also shown me another two-page document, identified as Pages 32 and 33 of CR 1245. It is not dated. It purports to be what a Dallas Times Herald reporter named Jim Lehrer told FBI Agent Alfred C. Ellington. The initials at the top are "RPG". Mr. Weisberg has informed me that these are the initials of a since-retired agent, Robert P. Gamberling, who compiled and rewrote reports in the FBI's Dallas Field Office.

19. This document, attached as Exhibit "D", appears to be about twice as long as the FBI report that is Exhibit "C". I note that it contains no mention of any evidence of the shooting in the assassination and appears to be an effort to attack my credibility, without so stating. While it refers to what is called "his story" it makes no mention of the information I gave the FBI earlier or of the many independent confirmations of it in current news accounts quoting police officials or to the statement the Dallas police took from me the afternoon of the day of the assassination.

20. Aside from being what I regard as a prejudicial account, the FBI never checked with me if there is inaccuracy, whether or not intended prejudicially, in describing me as a "used car salesman" in the third paragraph. I have had a 16-year career in new car sales and fleet sales management. My specialty is fleet sales throughout the United States and abroad. These range from the sale of fleets of vans that are bullet-proofed in Dallas and are sent throughout the United States as the vehicles of the Purolator Armored Car Service, to foreign orders in the hundreds, including some that because of domestic business conditions, were too large to be contracted profitably.

21. Mr. Lehrer's account of his interview with me appeared in the Dallas Times Herald of June 5, 1964. It is attached herein as Exhibit "E". It states nothing that is alleged in the RPG report, Exhibit "D"; suggests nothing of the sort; and, in fact, says exactly the opposite of my being a self-seeker, or a publicity seeker:

35. While after 13 years I am not certain about the nature of the visible point of impact on the curbstone, I am certain of the words of my testimony quoted in the Warren Report on this, "That there was a mark quite obviously that was a bullet, and it was very fresh."
