Check my Connolly file / r SB file for Dallas Police report on his wounds. Report he was wounded in the thigh by a fragment not bullet. Source had to be Packland

Been to Rankin 1/30/1964 - Berlin has all 3 shot history JFK & Connolly (see PM 492)

202

P56 of PM CDI was written without description of official autopsy - Post the Supplement just came out on 13 January 1964 and have description of autopsy but were charged for 3 shots, 3 hits.

All three - FBI, TS, and we had 3 shots, 3 hits - would they could no longer ignore ignores the Troque bullet.

pp. 82/3 - FBI gives measurements of two frags - Connolly's thigh, wrist and his chest comparing to Magic Bullet.

WWF p 179 - Cites WER that "Drs ~~traced~~ traced the course of the bullet through the body". At lie use

PM 305 - w/ death Certificate a to new unanimous unanimity was achieved - see Dallas Hqs all all prosecutors (see their black '64 we testify) in one forum and agreed that what was attributed to CE # 399 was impossible.

S-B Theory (2)

Haines, Brownell, Finch, Shaw, Skeris — all of them agreed that CE# 399 could not have pushed Connolly's wrist. But UKF says all Drs. agreed w/ S-B Theory

Jackie Kennedy's W.C. Testimony 5H190 where she was asked about JFK's wounds (read heads I reference to wounds deleted). Was this fairly broad discretion — or could she say something about the wound wound above the tie line, etc.

Tomlinson's Testimony (6H128ff) says no
